This book, like all our other books in the In Use series, is the result of the work of many people. Cambridge University Press editors, reviewers, designers, marketing staff, sales and publicity staff have all contributed their advice and expertise, and there are just too many to name individually here. Particular thanks must, however, go to the following two people at Cambridge University Press: Nőirín Burke, whose expertise and vision have guided us throughout the writing of this book, and Martine Walsh, who has steered the project from its beginnings through to publication with consistent insight and thoroughness. We are very grateful to them both. We also owe a great deal to the Cambridge University Press lexicographers who worked with the Cambridge International Corpus to produce the Cambridge International Dictionary of Phrasal Verbs. We drew heavily on the database of this dictionary when selecting verbs to include in this book and when compiling the Mini dictionary at the back of this book.

We have also received invaluable feedback from both teacher and student reviewers. Their comments have had a great influence on the final manuscript and we are very grateful to them. In particular we would like to thank the following teachers, students and institutions from all over the world who reviewed and piloted the material throughout its development:

Kristi Alcouffe, Bonelles, France
Margarida Busatto, Sao Paulo, Brazil
Philippa Dralet, Paris, France
Gill Hamilton, Valencia, Spain
Olga Vinogradova, Moscow, Russia
Marilyn Woolf, London, UK
Kevin Rutherford, Warsaw, Poland
Julie Moore, Cambridge, UK
Eilwen David, Munich, Germany
Ewa Modzejewska, Gdynia, Poland
Yuri Harra, Tokyo, Japan

Finally, as always, we would like to thank our domestic partners and loved ones for their unfailing support while we were taken up with this project.

Michael McCarthy and Felicity O’Dell

Development of this publication has made use of the Cambridge International Corpus (CIC). The CIC is a computerised database of contemporary spoken and written English, which currently stands at 600 million words. It includes British English, American English and other varieties of English. It also includes the Cambridge Learner Corpus, developed in collaboration with the University of Cambridge ESOL Examinations. Cambridge University Press has built up the CIC to provide evidence about language use that helps to produce better language teaching materials.

Using this book

Why was this book written?
It was written to help you improve your knowledge of phrasal verbs in English. Phrasal verbs are verbs which have a main verb and a particle which, together, create one meaning (e.g. a plane takes off from the airport; an adult looks after a child). You will come across a great many phrasal verbs when you listen to and read English, and so it is important that you learn about their meanings and about how they are used. You can use this book either with a teacher or for self-study.

There are more than 5,000 phrasal verbs and related noun and adjective forms in use in English. This book focuses just on those phrasal verbs which you need to know for everyday spoken and written communication in English, and it aims to provide the information and practice which will help you understand and use them correctly.

How were the phrasal verbs in the book selected?
The approximately 1,000 phrasal verbs and related noun and adjective forms which are presented in this book were all selected from those identified as significant by the CANCODE corpus of spoken English, developed at the University of Nottingham in association with Cambridge University Press and the Cambridge International Corpus of written and spoken English. The phrasal verbs selected are also to be found in the Cambridge International Dictionary of Phrasal Verbs, where additional example sentences and usage notes will also be found. You can search this dictionary online by going to the following website: dictionary.cambridge.org.

How is the book organised?
The book has 70 two-page units. The left-hand page explains the phrasal verbs that are presented in the unit. You will usually find an explanation of the meaning of each phrasal verb, an example of it in use and, where appropriate, any special notes about its usage. The right-hand page checks that you have understood the information on the left-hand page by giving you a series of exercises that practise the material just presented. The exercises pay particular attention to checking understanding of the phrasal verbs and how they are used, so that you will be able to use them accurately and appropriately.

The units are organised into different sections:
First we start with important information about phrasal verbs in general (Units 1–5): what they are, how their grammar works, and so on. This is an important training section, and we recommend you do these units first.

After the introductory units, there are units on the most common verbs which are used to form phrasal verbs (Units 6–12) and units on the most common particles found in phrasal verbs (Units 13–21).

The rest of the book teaches you the phrasal verbs which are associated with particular concepts (e.g. time), functions (e.g. giving and getting information) and topics (e.g. business, feelings, student life).

The book also has a key to all the exercises so that you can check your answers. At the back of this book you will find a useful Mini dictionary. This provides clear definitions of all the phrasal verbs and related noun and adjective forms that appear in this book. The Mini dictionary also indicates the unit number where you can find a particular phrasal verb.
How should I use this book?
It is strongly recommended that you work through Units 1–5 first so that you become familiar with the way phrasal verbs operate and with the terminology that is used in the rest of the book. After that, you may work on the units in any order that suits you.

What else do I need in order to work with this book?
You need a notebook or file in which you can write down the phrasal verbs that you study in this book as well as any others that you come across elsewhere.

You also need to have access to a good dictionary. We strongly recommend the Cambridge International Dictionary of Phrasal Verbs as this gives exactly the kind of information that you need to have about phrasal verbs. Your teacher, however, may also be able to recommend other dictionaries that you will find useful.

So, we hope that this book will help you understand and use new or difficult phrasal verbs that crop up (see Unit 44 – Student life: reading and writing) in your reading and listening in English and that, by the time you finish the units, you’ll be saying: ‘English phrasal verbs? Show me a new one and I’ll figure out what it means in seconds!’ (see Unit 69 American and Australian phrasal verbs).
Phrasal verbs: the basics

A

What are phrasal verbs?
Phrasal verbs are verbs that consist of a verb and a particle.

</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>look</td>
<td>up</td>
<td>You can look up any new words in your dictionary.</td>

<tr>
<td>get</td>
<td>through</td>
<td>I tried to phone her but I couldn't get through.</td>
<td>I tried to phone her but I couldn't get a connection.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>make</td>
<td>out</td>
<td>I just can't make Jim out at all.</td>
<td>I just can't understand Jim's behaviour.</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Particles are small words which you already know as prepositions or adverbs. Here are some of the most common phrasal verb particles: about (a)round at away back down for in into off on out over through to up

B

What do I need to know about phrasal verbs?
First you need to know the meaning of the whole phrasal verb as a unit. The Mini dictionary in this book will help you. For example, look means to use your eyes and up means the opposite of down, but the phrasal verb look up can have several different meanings:
Look the word up in the dictionary. [look up = search for information in a book/computer]
I'll look you up next time I'm in London. [look up = visit someone you have not seen for a long time] Things are looking up. [look up = improve]

Next you need to know the grammar patterns of phrasal verbs, e.g. whether the verb takes an object. The table shows the way the grammar patterns are shown in this book and in many dictionaries. Note that sth means something; sb means someone.

<table>

<td>This photograph brings back happy memories. [makes me remember or think about something from the past] Not: This photograph brings back my sister.</td>

Exercises

1.1 Underline the twelve phrasal verbs in these sentences.
1 I sent off the order last week but the goods haven’t turned up yet.
2 I came across an interesting book in the library. I took down the title. Here it is.
3 We asked some friends around to watch a film, but the video was playing up and it eventually broke down.
4 I brought up this problem at the last meeting. It’s really time to sort out the problem.
5 I wish he’d stop messing us about! He’s put the meeting of three times and now he wants to call it off altogether.

1.2 Match the twelve phrasal verbs from sentences 1–5 in exercise 1.1 above with their meanings from the box below.

cause inconvenience deal with stop working find invite home arrive post cancel write postpone not work properly mention

1.3 Decide which of these sentences contain errors. Explain why they are wrong and suggest a correct answer. Use the table in B to help you.
1 That song you just sang brings back memories of my days at college.
2 She looked the children after when their mother was in hospital.
3 I promised to ring my brother back. He called earlier when I was busy.
4 We ate out a wonderful dinner last night.
5 It was a beautiful summer evening so I asked the cat out for a drink.

1.4 Sometimes phrasal verbs are followed by a particular preposition to make three-part verbs. Try to learn these prepositions with the phrasal verbs. Look at these examples of three-part verbs, then complete the sentences below with a preposition from the box. Use a dictionary or the Mini dictionary at the back of this book if necessary.

EXAMPLES I’m looking forward to the weekend.
She’s been going out with him for six months now.

with against with on with

1 She seems to look down people who are less intelligent than her.
2 The school decided to do away the language lab as no-one was using it.
3 I came up a serious problem when I tried to save my work onto a disk.
4 How can some students get away doing no work and yet pass the exams?
5 Her son is so horrible. I don’t know how she puts up him.

That’s not what I meant when I said, ‘Can you drop me off at the beach, please’!
Phrasal verbs: what they mean

A The most common verbs
Here are the most common verbs that form part of phrasal verbs:
break bring call come cut get give go keep knock look make pass pick pull put put run set take turn Units 6–12 deal with a selection of these verbs which form a large number of useful, everyday phrasal verbs.

B Meanings
The basic meanings of the verbs in A refer to concrete actions (e.g. break means separate into pieces), but when they are part of phrasal verbs, they often have abstract meanings too. Sometimes the concrete meaning can help you guess the abstract meaning, for example, you can look back to wave goodbye to someone as you leave in a car (concrete meaning – look behind you), or you can look back on your past life (abstract meaning – remember or recall).

<table>

<td>give</td>
<td>I gave my essay in yesterday. [handed it to the teacher]</td>
<td>Her parents finally gave in and let her go to the party. [agreed to something they had refused before]</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>get</td>
<td>She got on the bus. [entered]</td>
<td>Jim and Mary don't get on. [don't like each other and are not friendly to each other]</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>come</td>
<td>Would you like to come round this evening? [come to my home]</td>
<td>He was unconscious for three hours but came round in hospital. [became conscious again]</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

C Synonyms of phrasal verbs
A phrasal verb can often be replaced by a single verb with more or less the same meaning. The single-verb synonyms are often, but not always, more formal (see Unit 5, section C).

<table>

<td>Please remove your shoes when you enter the temple.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Everyone turned up on time for the meeting.</td>
<td>Everyone arrived on time for the meeting.</td>
</tr>
</tbody>

TIP If you know a single-verb synonym of a phrasal verb, write it in your vocabulary notebook, and note whether or not the phrasal verb is more informal.
Exercises

2.1 Complete these sentences using verbs from the list in A opposite.
1. The car b_____________ down on the way to the airport.
2. The heavy snow blocked the roads and c_____________ the farm off completely.
3. It took him a long time to g_____________ over his illness.
4. It isn’t easy to learn German but you must k_____________ on trying.
5. If you’d like a lift to the station tomorrow, I can p_____________ you up at 9 a.m.
6. This is a really stupid programme. Please t_____________ the TV off.

2.2 In which of the sentences in exercise 2.1 above could you put the particle in a different position?

2.3 Decide whether the phrasal verbs in these sentences are concrete or abstract in meaning, by writing C for concrete or A for abstract in the brackets.

EXAMPLE He looked up (C) and saw a hot-air balloon in the sky.
1. I would never go against ( ) my parents’ wishes.
2. Shall I cut out ( ) this ad for the new CD player? We might want to buy one.
3. About five miles into our journey the engine cut out ( ) and we broke down ( ) completely. It was over an hour before the rescue service turned up ( ).
4. Do we need to dress up ( ) tonight or is it informal?
5. I shall never really appreciate what my grandparents went through ( ) during the war.

2.4 Replace the underlined verbs in these sentences with phrasal verbs made using the verbs and particles from the boxes below. If necessary, use the Mini dictionary at the end of this book.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>make</th>
<th>chase</th>
<th>brush</th>
<th>leave</th>
<th>fall</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>up</td>
<td>for</td>
<td>out</td>
<td>aside</td>
<td>out</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

1. They just ignored my complaints; it made me very angry.
2. I believed his story about having lost all his money. How stupid I was!
3. I couldn’t understand what he was saying with all the noise.
4. Could you pursue Janet’s report? She promised it last week but I haven’t seen it yet.
5. If you are phoning from outside the country, omit the first zero in the city code.

2.5 Use more formal equivalents from the box instead of the phrasal verbs in these sentences. Write the formal verbs in the correct form.

| decline | issue | organise | cancel | escape |

1. The government have put out a statement condemning the recent protests.
2. The union accepted the new pay deal and called off the strike.
3. The number of people not owning a TV set nowadays has gone down dramatically.
4. There was a disturbance in Blackmoor Prison yesterday and three prisoners got away.
5. Could you see to lunch for our visitors? There will be four of them.
Particles in phrasal verbs

This unit looks at the role of particles in phrasal verbs. A particle is either a preposition (e.g. from, to, with) or an adverb (e.g. out, up, about). You can create phrasal verbs by adding different particles to a basic verb.

A What do particles mean?
In some phrasal verbs the particle has a clear basic meaning. Look at the examples of different particles used with the verb invite. On the right, in speech bubbles, you can see what the original speaker probably said.

Jack invited me out.  Let’s go out together.
Rosie invited me in.  Please come in!
Jill invited me over.  Come to our place.
Paul invited me round.  Come to my house for dinner or a drink.
Mark invited me up.  Come upstairs to my flat.
Susie invited me along.  Come with us!
Bill invited me back.  Come back home with me.

B What other meanings can particles have?
Most particles convey a number of different senses. For example, over can have various meanings, including:
(a) changing position, e.g. in fall over [fall to the ground] or move over [change the place where you are sitting or standing to make room for someone else].
(b) an idea of thoroughness, e.g. in read over [read throughly] or talk over [discuss something thoroughly before making a decision].

The meanings of particles are looked at in more detail in Units 13–21.

C Where does the particle go?
With verbs that have an object:
- Sometimes the particle has to go before the object of the verb, e.g. I’m looking for my keys (not: I’m looking my keys for).
- Sometimes it must go after the object, e.g. I have a lot of work on (not: I have on a lot of work).
- Sometimes the particle may go either before or after the object, e.g. The thunder woke up the children or The thunder woke the children up.

Note that if the object is a pronoun (e.g. him, them), then the particle must go after it, e.g. The thunder woke them up (not: The thunder woke up them).
Exercises

3.1 Look at section A and then answer the questions about these sentences.

1. My brothers were going to the circus and they asked me along.
   Did the speaker go the circus on her own, with her brothers or do we not know for sure?
2. When I took Di a birthday present, she asked me in but I had to get to my lecture.
   Did the speaker go into Di’s house?
3. When I saw Mark on the balcony, he asked me up.
   Who was in a higher position, Mark or the speaker?
4. When the Richardsons asked me back after the concert I was happy to accept.
   Where did the speaker go after the concert?
5. My cousin has asked me to go over to his flat this evening.
   What word could replace over with no change in meaning?

3.2 Look at B opposite. Are the phrasal verbs underlined in the sentences below examples of the (a) or the (b) meanings of over?

1. Think it over before you make up your mind what to do next.
2. You may turn over the page now and read the exam questions.
3. It’s raining too hard to drive. Pull over to the edge of the road.
4. Look over your answers before the end of the exam.

3.3 Look at C opposite. Then read these definitions and decide whether the sentences below are correct or incorrect. If necessary, correct them.

- have on has, having, had
- have sth on to have an arrangement to do something (never in continuous tenses)
- have sb on to persuade someone that something is true when it is not, usually as a joke
- have on sth or have sth on if you have clothes or shoes on, you are wearing them (never in continuous tenses; never passive)

1. I have on three important meetings tomorrow.
2. John has an amazing tie on.
3. Sue was only having on her sisters when she told them she was planning to become a model.
4. I’m having a lot of work on today.
5. I don’t believe you! I’m sure you’re having me on.
6. Ruth was wearing her new jeans this morning and she had on them yesterday.

3.4 Put the words in the correct order to make sentences.

1. to / you / for / make room / Can / move / over / your sister?
2. finished / she / over. / Harry / it / to read / When / her essay, / asked / Jill
3. his house / tomorrow. / Jim / back / me / has invited / to
4. when he / Paul / his driving test. / his parents / he’d failed / only having / was / told them / on
5. tomorrow? / What / you / on / do / have
6. the light / in her bedroom, / was / she / at home. / Sue / had / I knew / on / so
Nouns and adjectives based on phrasal verbs

A Nouns made from verb + particle

In English we often create nouns from verbs, e.g. to invite / an invitation. In the same way it is sometimes possible to create a noun from a phrasal verb. Look at these examples.

Tom: I got ripped off when I phoned that 0877 number [informal: was charged too much]. The call cost five pounds a minute!
Lily: Yes, those numbers are a big rip-off.
Mona: Her son dropped out of college last year. [gave up his course]
Ed: Mm. There were a lot of dropouts that year. I wonder why?
Mick: Somebody broke in last night and stole a computer from the school. [entered by force to steal something]
Pat: Really? That’s the second break-in this year!

Rules for the use of verb + particle noun forms

- The plural is formed by adding –s to the particle, not the verb, e.g. break-ins, dropouts, rip-offs (not: breaks-in, drop-out, rips-off)
  An exception is goings-on [strange or amusing events], which is always plural. There was a lot of gossip about the goings-on at the office party.
- Verb + particle noun forms are sometimes written with a hyphen, e.g. break-in, check-in, cover-up; and sometimes without, e.g. dropout, checkout, crackdown.
  Nouns with –out and –over are usually written as one word, e.g. dropout, lookout, checkout, handout, changeover, leftovers.
  Nouns with –in, –up and less common particles usually have a hyphen, e.g. lie-in, mix-up, put-down, run-through.
- In pronunciation, the stress is on the verb, not the particle.

B Nouns made from particle + verb

Some phrasal verbs have noun forms where the particle is first. The stress in pronunciation is usually on the particle.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>phrasal verb</th>
<th>particle + verb noun</th>

</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>set out</td>
<td>outset</td>
<td>I knew from the outset that there would be problems. [beginning]</td>
</tr>
<tr>

<td>downfall</td>
<td>The economic crisis caused the downfall of the government. [sudden failure or end]</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>look on</td>
<td>onlooker</td>
<td>Crowds of onlookers watched as the police arrested the man. [someone who watches an event but doesn’t take part]</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

C Adjectives

There are also adjectives which are based on phrasal verbs. Make a note of any you meet, e.g. a broken-down vehicle [vehicle whose engine had stopped working] a breakdown truck [truck which helps drivers who have broken down] blocked-up drains [drains where the water cannot flow properly]
Exercises

4.1 Complete the following table. If a noun form does not exist, write ‘none’ in the table. Use a dictionary if necessary. Decide whether the noun is written with a hyphen or as one word.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>phrasal verb</th>
<th>verb + particle noun</th>

<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>hide out</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>turn over</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>tear down</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

4.2 Circle the correct noun form in these sentences. Use a dictionary if necessary.
1. There was a big pile-up / up-pile on the motorway involving five vehicles.
2. The government has announced a series of backcuts / cutbacks in funding for universities in order to save money.
3. When the higher taxes were announced there was a public outcry / cryout.
4. Several standbys / bystanders did nothing while the thieves robbed him of his cash.

4.3 Complete these sentences with adjective forms of phrasal verbs from the box below.

| throwaway          | outgoing | bygone | getaway | off-putting |

1. The robbers abandoned their throwaway car in a car park near the airport.
2. I find his manner very outgoing. He’s so unfriendly.
3. They decided to use bygone paper plates and cups for their party.
4. Let’s invite Sally – she’s very getaway and loves parties.
5. The pictures of the steam trains were like something from an off-putting era.

4.4 Write down the infinitive form of the phrasal verbs from which the adjectives in exercise 4.3 above are formed.

4.5 Match the sentences on the left with a suitable response on the right.
1. I was looking for a way to turn off the photocopier.
   2. Have you heard about the scandal in the office?
   3. The economy is not doing so well these days.
   4. A database can organise all the information you type into it.
   5. You have to consider how much you spend each month.
   I know, I need to watch my outgoings.
   Yes, but I don’t understand the input.
   There’s the on/off switch.
   Yes, there’s been a downturn.
   Mm, amazing goings-on!
Metaphor and register

Multiple meanings of phrasal verbs
A phrasal verb can have a number of different meanings, e.g.

He got on the bus. [entered the bus]

Jim and Ian get on really well. [like each other and are friendly]

Shh! I’m trying to get on with my work. [continue doing my work]

Often there is no direct connection between the various meanings and you just have to learn each different meaning of the phrasal verb. The best way to do this is by trying to remember a sentence using the phrasal verb.

Literal and metaphorical meaning
Sometimes the basic meanings of a phrasal verb and the additional meanings are clearly linked. This is because some additional meanings are based on a metaphor or image which has a direct connection with its literal or basic meaning. A metaphor is a way of expressing something by comparing it with something else that has similar characteristics. Here is an example:

LITERAL (BASIC) MEANING blow up a balloon inflating or fill with air blow up a building

make it explode

METAPHORICAL MEANING someone blows up
suddenly becomes very angry

Sometimes a phrasal verb only exists as a phrasal verb in the metaphorical meaning, but you can guess what it means from the meaning of the basic verb without the particle. For example: These statistics look strange. Have we slipped up somewhere?

Here slip up [make a mistake] clearly comes from slip [fall usually because the floor is wet or the ground is icy].

Register
Another important aspect of phrasal verbs is register. Phrasal verbs are typical of spoken English or informal writing, e.g. letters to friends and articles in popular journalism. There are often one-word equivalents, or synonyms, for use in a more formal spoken or written style. For example: miss out a question or omit a question. See section 2C in Unit 2 for other examples.

As with all English vocabulary, there are some different uses from one geographical area to another. For example, British, American and Australian users of English all talk of clearing up a room [putting things away tidily], but only British and Australian speakers would use tidy up as a synonym.

See Unit 69 for more examples of how phrasal verbs differ in North America and Australia.
Exercises

5.1 Match the different meanings a–f of take in with the appropriate sentences 1–6 below.

a) make smaller
b) allow in through a hole
c) deceive
d) give a bed to
e) include
f) understand the meaning or importance

1. Because so many passengers were stranded at the airport, some local families offered to take them in overnight.
2. The news is so shocking – I still can’t take it in.

Amelia’s story

Amelia has been going through a difficult time at work, so she decided to cheer herself up by going in for a competition. The prize was a luxury holiday in the Caribbean. Amelia has had to go without a holiday for several years now, so she really wanted to win. The competition was to write a story beginning ‘Suddenly the lights went out...’ The problem was that Amelia could not think of an idea for her story. ‘How can I go about getting a good idea?’ she asked me. ‘It must be something special so that the judges go for my story over all the others.’ I suggested she went to the library to go through some books of short stories – she might get some ideas there. So she went off to see what she could find.

She soon found some great stories. She read one and then another and she went on reading all afternoon. Then she noticed a strange smell and suddenly the lights went out. She looked up and saw that the library was on fire. Of course, that gave her the idea for her story. I hope she wins.

Take

Take in a physical sense

If you take apart something or take something apart you separate it into its different parts.

Rod loves taking clocks apart, but he never manages to put them together again.

If you take back something or take something back, you return it to the person or organisation that you bought or borrowed it from.

When you go into town to take back your library books could you also take these trousers back to the shop for me – they’re too small.

If you take aside somebody or take somebody aside, you separate someone from a group of people so that you can speak to them privately.

My boss took me aside at the Christmas party and told me he was going to give me a promotion in the New Year.

If you take off, you suddenly leave a place, without telling anyone where you are going.

Most people stayed at the party until quite late, but Rose took off early for some reason.

Other senses of take

Lucy has started swimming regularly. She has taken out a year’s membership at a local sports club and has taken to going to the swimming pool every lunch hour. She is so taken up with her swimming that she wouldn’t even take me up on my offer to buy her lunch in the best restaurant in town. The exercise certainly takes it out of her – she is too exhausted to go anywhere in the evenings.

1 subscribed to or registered for something officially
2 started to do something often
3 very busy doing something
4 accept
5 makes her feel very tired

Because the most common verbs, e.g. take, get, make, have so many different phrasal verbs with different meanings associated with them, it is useful to group the meanings, as in the sections of this unit. Try to do this for other common verbs and their phrasal verbs as you meet new ones and try to record an example sentence in your vocabulary notebook to help you remember them.
Exercises

12.1 Each line of this text contains a phrasal verb with take, but some of them are used incorrectly. If a line has a correct phrasal verb, tick the box. If the line is incorrect, cross out the incorrect word and write the correct word in the box.

Example The watch was broken so I took it off to the shop.

I bought a new jacket but it had a mark on it so I took it back.
The shop assistant took me offside and told me that if I was prepared to keep the jacket she would take away ten per cent. I didn’t really take in what she was saying at first, but once I understood, I decided to take her over on the offer.

12.2 Use a phrasal verb from the opposite page to complete these dialogues.

1 Roy: I find it very offensive that you called Ciaran an idiot.
   Kim: OK, OK. Sorry, I shouldn’t have said it. I ____________________

2 Matt: Fiona seems really keen on her tennis these days.
   Clare: Yes, she’s really ______________________ it. She’s so ____________________ with it that she’s stopped going to the swimming pool.

3 Jim: I tried to clean the inside of my computer and I’ve put all the bits back but I have two bits left over.
   Len: Well, I’m not surprised! I warned you not to _______________________ in the first place.

4 Brian: I get so bored since I retired from my job.
   Miriam: Well, why don’t you ______________________ golf?

5 Ali: What’s this figure here, £30?
   Paul: It’s what you get when you _______________________ £15 _______________________ from £45.

6 Anoma: You look exhausted these days.
   Terry: Yes, teaching 28 hours a week really _______________________ me.

7 Hilary: Geoff left very suddenly, didn’t he?
   Kersty: Yes, he just ________________________ without even saying goodbye.

To the surprise of everyone at the party, Geoff suddenly took off without saying goodbye.
Read this text about someone complaining about having to do housework. Notice how the particle up sometimes expresses the idea of completing or totally finishing something.

I spent all morning yesterday clearing up\(^1\) my study. There were books and papers everywhere. Then I had to sweep up\(^2\) the rubbish and dead leaves on the terrace. After that I tried to tidy up\(^3\) my bedroom. There were dirty clothes all jumbled up\(^4\) in a pile on the floor. I had to hang up\(^5\) four jackets and several pairs of trousers I’d left lying on chairs. That took me an hour. Then I discovered the washbasin was clogged up\(^6\) in the bathroom, so I had to clear that. By that time I’d used up\(^7\) all my energy and I was too tired to do anything, so I just fell asleep on the sofa.

1. making a place tidy and clean, especially by putting things where they usually belong
2. remove rubbish or dirt, usually from the floor, using a brush
3. make a room or a group of things tidy by putting things in the correct place
4. (adjective) mixed together in an untidy way (from the verb jumble up)
5. hang something, especially clothes, on a hook
6. blocked
7. finished a supply of something

Note how the particle up can be used for emphasis:

Eat up your vegetables, children! Drink up your juice! Paul’s used up all the milk.

These three sentences could be written without up, but using up emphasises the meaning of ‘finish it all or completely’.

Read this live Internet chat between Robert and Gemma.

G: Hi Rob, are you there?
R: Hi Gemma, what’s new?
G: My sister Val showed up\(^1\) at last. She’s been promising to come for weeks.
R: Great. :)
G: Yeah, she turned up\(^2\) yesterday evening.
R: What’s she doing these days?
G: She’s just opened up\(^3\) a restaurant serving exotic food from different countries. It’s in that shopping mall in Dunston, you know.
R: Wow! That’s original. It’ll certainly liven Dunston up\(^4\) a bit, it’s such a boring place. How did she think of that?
G: Oh, she’s always full of new ideas.
R: So, what’s the set up\(^5\)? Is she the only person involved?
G: No, she has a business partner and they divide up\(^6\) the work – and the profits!
R: Sounds like fun. :)
G: Yeah, but she says it’s hard work. She spends half the day chopping up\(^7\) food and cleaning the kitchen.
R: Mm. Maybe we’re better off working in office jobs …

On and in

On

On in phrasal verbs sometimes has a clear link with the basic physical meaning of on.

Never buy shoes without trying them on! [putting on a piece of clothing to see whether it fits and whether you like it]

Ray: Do you think Dan’s really feeling better or is he just putting on a brave face? [pretending to have a particular feeling or behave in a way that is not real or natural for you]

Joe: No, I think he’s fine now. I don’t think his cheerfulness is put-on. [adjective: pretend or not genuine, from the verb put on]

Sam: I’ve got something weighing on* my mind at the moment. Could you give me some advice? [worrying, upsetting]

Deb: No problem. Tell me all about it and I’ll do what I can.

On is also used with verbs where there is an idea of dependence.

You can always rely/depend/count on* Jim! [be confident that someone will help you]

*In these four verbs upon may be used instead of on. Upon sounds slightly more formal.

On in phrasal verbs also often contains an idea of further.

Just because you’ve failed one driving test, you mustn’t stop having lessons. You must keep on trying. [continue to do something]

When you’ve finished with the magazine, just pass it on to someone else. [give]

In

B

Being in a place

Fans were milling about/around/round the hotel lobby hoping to see the film star and get her autograph. [walking about a particular place or area, usually while waiting for something]

Meanwhile photographers and journalists were standing about/around/round chatting to each other. [spending time standing in a place waiting for someone or doing very little]

Mick: Can you stick around this afternoon? [informal: stay somewhere for a period of time] If so, I’ll take you around/round the office and introduce you to the other secretaries if you like. [visit a place with someone showing them the most interesting or important parts]

Anne: No, it’s all right, thanks. The boss has already shown me around/round. [gone with someone to a place that they have not visited before and shown them the interesting parts]
Exercises

18.1 Draw lines to match the verbs in the left-hand column with the best definitions in the right-hand column.

1 mess
2 hang
3 lie
4 sit
5 laze

about/(a)round

lie down doing very little spend time sitting down and doing very little relax, enjoy yourself and do very little behave stupidly or waste time spend time somewhere not doing very much

18.2 Now use the verbs from exercise 18.1 to fill the gaps in these sentences. Write the verbs in the correct form and use each verb once only.

1 She just ................................... around on the sofa all day reading magazines.
   I wish she’d get a job.
2 We could be ................................... round here for hours waiting for a taxi. Let’s walk.
3 After the meeting we were just ................................... around chatting for a while.
4 My idea of a perfect weekend is just ................................... around at home with a good book.
5 I wish the kids would stop ................................... about.

18.3 Rewrite the underlined words in these sentences, using phrasal verbs from the opposite page.

1 Do you want to stay here after the meeting? I finish work at 5 p.m. and I could go with you and show you the most interesting places in the old town.
2 Nothing much happened at the demonstration. We just stood in one place not doing much and held our banners up.
3 They spend most weekends just doing things without much purpose in their boat; they don’t really sail it seriously.
4 On my first day, the boss went with me through the workshop and introduced me to various people I’d be working with.
5 At the drinks party people were just wandering here and there hoping to find someone they knew.
6 Look, I’m sorry, I don’t want to cause you problems and waste your time, but I wonder if we could postpone our meeting till next week?

18.4 Here are some other phrasal verbs with about/around. Read the sentences and try to explain in your own words what they mean. Use a dictionary if necessary.

1 I’ve got to go now but I’ll see you around.
2 Don’t order me about! I’m not your servant, you know.
3 Shop assistant: Can I help you?
   Customer: No thanks. I’m just looking around.
4 My suitcase got a bit bashed about on the plane.
5 He told the kids to stop fooling around.
For and with

Note that with all the verbs in this unit the particles for and with must go before the object of the verb.

A  For

Each response in the dialogues below contains two phrasal verbs with for. Learning verbs in pairs associated with the same context can help you remember them.

Nina: I've been given the chance to apply for that new post in Head Office. What do you think?
Gary: I think you should go for it [try to get or achieve it]. We'll all be rooting for you [informal: showing support for you in a competition, or hoping that you will succeed].

Melanie: How's your new babysitter?
Brad: We couldn't ask for a better babysitter [the new babysitter is the best of her kind]. She just lives for our kids and they just adore her [believes that the kids are the most important people in her life].

Val: I saw you going into Betty's flat with her this morning. Is anything wrong?
Irene: Her washing machine had flooded the kitchen. She sent for a plumber and got it fixed but it left a terrible mess [send someone a message asking them to come to see you]. We had planned to go into town and I was calling for her on the way there, but in the end we stayed at home and tidied the mess in the kitchen [visiting her place in order to collect her].

Joe: What does 'R' mean on that sign?
Ray: I think it stands for 'restaurant' [is the first letter of a word or name and is used to represent it]. Let's stop. You must be dying for something to eat [informal: be wanting something very much, especially food or drink].

19.4 Rewrite these sentences, using phrasal verbs from the opposite page.

1. I couldn’t tolerate such noisy neighbours as yours.
2. It’s been such a busy week. I can’t wait for the weekend.
3. Jean’s shoes match her handbag perfectly.
4. All the students at his university were hoping Kyle would win the golf championship.
5. I have the best job you could imagine.
6. Her grandson is the most important person in Stella’s life.
Through and back

Through

Through in phrasal verbs gives an idea of going from one side of something to the other, or from the beginning to the end of something. Note that with most of these phrasal verbs through must go before the object of the verb.

If you sleep through a loud noise or activity, it does not wake you.

  I'm sorry I'm late. I'm afraid I slept through my alarm.

If you live through something, you experience a difficult situation or event.

  People who have lived through a war often have rather a different outlook on life.

If you flick/flip through a magazine or book, you look briefly at its pages.

  I usually flick/flip through a magazine before buying it.

If you look through something, you read it quickly and not very carefully.

If you go through something, you carefully read or discuss it to make sure that it is correct.

  I'll look through the report tonight and then we can go through it properly tomorrow.

If you take someone through something, you explain it or show them how to do it.

  Don't worry – Jack will take you through the job before we leave you on your own.

If you see through a person who is trying to trick you, you realise what they are really like or what they are trying to do.

  He is so charming that few people see through him and realise that he is just a conman.

Back in phrasal verbs usually conveys the idea of returning.

If you want to return something you have bought by post, perhaps because it is the wrong size or is damaged, you send it back. If you go to the shop to exchange it in person you take it back. Shops usually have to agree to take back things they have sold you if you find they are not in good condition when you get home. If you call/phone/ring someone back or e-mail someone back, you are replying to a phone message or e-mail from them.

Note that with the verbs above, back can go before or after the object of the verb.

If someone, especially a child, answers (someone) back, they reply rudely to someone they should be polite to.

  Mother: Say thank you to Mrs Brown.
  Child: Say thank you yourself.
  Mother: Don’t answer me back like that.

An interesting use of back is in the expression: We go back ten years. This is an informal way of saying: We have known each other for ten years.

If you bite back, you do something bad to someone because they did something bad to you. However, if you bite something back or bite back something, you stop yourself from saying something that shows your true feelings or thoughts.

When Emma is criticised she doesn’t hesitate to bite back.

When Karl asked me what I thought of his lime-green suit, I had to bite back my initial response.
Exercises

20.1 Write what you could say in these situations using phrasal verbs with through.
1. Your boss asks you to explain to a new member of staff how things are done in the office, step by step. What could you say to the new person?
2. A friend warns you that another person, Leo, is trying to trick you. Reassure the friend that you realised what Leo was really like the first moment you met him.
3. You arrive late for an important meeting. You set your alarm clock but didn’t wake up when it rang. Apologise and explain what happened.
4. You have done some calculations at work, and there seems to be a mistake. Ask a colleague to read the figures carefully to see if they can see any mistakes.
5. A colleague offers to read in detail a 12-page report you have written. Tell them that that will not be necessary and that you’ll be grateful if they just looked at it very briefly. (Give three possible answers.)
6. A friend asks you why a person you know always seems so sad. Explain that that person has experienced some terrible things over the last few years.

20.2 Complete these sentences using verbs from B.

c) start doing or saying something (e.g. a speech or a story) in a very enthusiastic way
d) make a person or animal so frightened that they go away
e) not go to a place

21.5 Can you see any basic meanings for into and away in the phrasal verbs in this unit that might help you learn them?
At work

Florence works as a nurse. When she starts work she has to clock on\(^1\) and when she leaves she clocks off\(^2\). If the machine shows that she has worked an extra long shift, then she is able to take time off\(^3\) at a later date. She was planning to take a holiday in July this year but has had to bring it forward\(^4\) as July is going to be a particularly busy time for her hospital this year.

Florence loves her work but her hospital is understaffed and she hates to always be pressed for\(^5\) time. She finds it almost impossible to fit in\(^6\) time to talk to the patients although she feels that is an important part of her job. She can chat for a few minutes but then she has to press on\(^7\) with her other duties. The hospital employs many nurses from overseas; but when their work permits run out\(^8\) after two years they have to leave.

1. record the time she arrives at work, usually at a machine with a clock (also clock in)
2. record the time she leaves work (also clock out)
3. spend time away from work
4. change the date or time of something so that it happens earlier than expected
5. not have enough of something, usually time or money
6. find time to do something or see someone
7. continue doing something in a determined way
8. come to an end (of the period of time of a document or agreement); more formal equivalent is expire

At leisure

When Florence does have spare time, she likes to relax. She usually hangs out\(^1\) with friends she was at school with. They have knocked around together\(^2\) for years and love whiling away\(^3\) their days off, going round the shops or just chatting at one of their homes. Sometimes they go away for a weekend and muck about\(^4\) at Florence's aunt's cottage in the countryside. Last time they did that, a colleague of Florence's latched on to\(^5\) them. The others didn't really like her at first, especially as they always had to hang on\(^6\) while she got ready, but now they all like her very much.

1. spends a lot of time (informal)
2. spent a lot of time with one another because they are good friends (informal)
3. spending time in a relaxed way either because they are waiting for something or have nothing special to do
4. waste time doing silly things (informal)
5. spent time with them, especially when they did not want her with them
6. wait, usually for a short time (informal)

The past

Journey into the past at the Charnbury Folk Museum

If you're young, come on a journey into the past before you were born. If you're a senior, let us take you back¹ to your childhood. Think back² to what everyday life was like 50, 60, 100 years ago, before TV, before computers, before fridges and washing machines. Many of our exhibits date back³ to the early 19th century.

Is that old vacuum cleaner in your attic just a leftover⁴ from a bygone⁵ era or is it a piece of industrial history? Come and find out.

Open: Monday–Friday, 10 a.m.–5 p.m.

Admission: Adults – £2.00
Concessions – £1.20

Address: Palmer Square, Charnbury
Tel: 0211 4684536

¹ make you remember a period or an event in the past
² think about things that happened in the past
³ have existed since a particular time
⁴ (noun) something which exists from an earlier time
⁵ (adjective) from a time which does not exist any more

Leftover (noun) and bygone (adjective) are formed from the verbs be left over and go by. We used some balloons that were left over from the Christmas party to decorate the house for her birthday. [still existed/were unused from an earlier time]

As time goes by you realise that your parents' advice was in your best interest. [passes]

Note that bygone also exists as a noun, but it is usually always in the plural bygones.

Time moving

I'm sorry to hold you up but you must sign these forms before you go in. [delay you]

If there are no hold-ups, we should arrive by about seven o'clock. [noun: delays]

Jim, can you hurry the kids up. The coach is about to leave. [make them act more quickly]

Mum walks so fast. It's quite hard to keep up with her. [go at the same speed as someone]

The meeting dragged on and everyone got irritable. [continued for too long]

I'm sorry I'm late. My French lesson ran on, so I didn't leave school till 4.30 p.m. [continued for longer than expected]

Three weeks passed by before I got a reply to my letter of complaint. [went past]

It's difficult to plan for the future. Nobody knows what lies ahead. [will happen in the future]

TIP

If a phrasal verb has a noun or adjective form associated with it, learn them together and record them together in your vocabulary notebook, e.g. leftover and be left over.

People in locations

Read this conversation between two students.

Deb: Come in, John.
John: What a great room!
Deb: Well, I like it. It was a bit dull when I moved in, but I bought these nice curtains which help to brighten it up¹. In fact, I like it so much here that I’d rather stay in² than go out most evenings.
John: You’re lucky! The room I rent is so miserable that I stay out³ as long as I can! I even stayed on⁴ in the library tonight until it closed! Anyhow, I’ve come to bring you your file – you left it behind⁵ at the seminar this morning.
Deb: Oh, thanks. How silly of me. I’m glad you noticed it.
John: Well, I stayed behind⁶ to ask the Prof some questions and then saw it lying there.
Deb: Thank you very much. Would you like a coffee now you’re here?
John: Well, I can’t stay now. But I’d love to call back⁷ another time if that’s OK?
Deb: Sure, that’d be nice.

¹ make more attractive, often by adding colours
² remain at home, especially in the evenings
³ come home late or not come home at night
⁴ stayed in a place longer than planned
⁵ left a place without taking something with you
⁶ did not leave a place when others left it
⁷ go back to a place to visit someone

Notice how three of the phrasal verbs in A are used in the passive: be tucked away, be spread out, be cut off. Make a special note in your vocabulary notebook if any phrasal verb construction is used in a particular way, e.g. in the passive, as a noun or as an adjective, and write down a typical example sentence to help you remember it.

Read this speech by a headteacher to pupils who are leaving school.

When you leave this school, we hope you will build on¹ what you have learnt here. You must not expect to just walk into² a highly-paid job, but most of you will, with hard work and self-discipline, succeed and achieve great things. Never be content to just muddle through³ as so many people do, always trying to catch up⁴ and failing to do so. Hard work, dedication and commitment will, in the end, pay off⁵. To keep up⁶ with the competition we all have to give 100%, so that our country can stay ahead⁷ in business and industry. It will be your job to make this happen. Good luck.

¹ use a success or achievement as a base from which to achieve more success
² get very easily
³ succeed in doing something even though you have difficulties because you do not really know how to do it
⁴ reach the same quality or standard as someone
⁵ be successful
⁶ make progress at the same speed as something or someone else so that you stay at the same level as them
⁷ continue to be more advanced and successful than other people

Note that the noun the outset, from the verb set out, means the beginning, e.g. There were problems from the outset and things became progressively worse.

Finishing

Joe called off the building work his team was doing on the new company offices because he had heard that the company was going bankrupt. He knew the money was going to dry up, so he was not prepared to continue. Most of the team immediately broke off what they were doing but some of them first finished off the task they were working on. Joe himself quickly polished off the last of his paperwork and then packed up too.

5 finished something quickly and easily
6 collected his things together, usually after finishing doing something

Suzanna is trying to give up smoking. At first she cut down to five rather than fifteen a day, but she is finding it very hard. She says that a cigarette helps her to wind down after a hard day at work. She hopes her determination won't fizzle out after a few weeks as she is very anxious not to give up this new regime.

1 stop doing or having something
2 reduced the amount or number
3 gradually relax after something that has made you feel tired or worried
4 gradually end or disappear, usually in a disappointing way
5 stop doing something before you have completed it, usually because it is too difficult

Reacting to destruction and negative situations

FIGHT TO SAVE VILLAGE HOME

MEANBOROUGH LOCAL COUNCIL has decided to destroy a beautiful old cottage in the village of Wareholt in order to widen the main road. However, the villagers are equally determined to fight back. The authorities want to evict an 89-year-old lady, Doris Jakes, who has lived all her life in the cottage, and seem to be bending over backwards to persuade her to go to and live in a modern old people's home in the nearest town.

Doris does not want to move and villagers are doing all they can to see her through her difficult time. Doris may seem old and harmless but she has turned on several officers from the council who have tried to get her to change her mind. There was a recent setback for Doris when she was told that she couldn't stay in the cottage because repairs needed to be done to the roof. However, her neighbour, a builder, quickly saw to it and her roof is now in good repair, so she is still in the cottage and hopes to win her battle.

Communication

A Managing subjects and topics
Kathryn Taylor is speaking to her colleagues at a weekly business meeting. She gives an outline of what she's going to say.

Well, there are a couple of matters which I want to bring up\(^1\) today for discussion. But before we get on to\(^2\) those questions, I just want to run through\(^3\) the schedule for next week's sales conference, which you all have copies of. Someone asked me if we could talk about the new computer system, but I'd prefer to leave that aside\(^4\) for today and come back to\(^5\) it another time. I'm sure I don't need to spell out\(^6\) how important it is that we're all thoroughly prepared for next week's conference, so maybe we can deal with\(^7\) that first. So, let's have a quick run-through\(^8\) of the schedule and discuss each event in turn.

1. start to talk about
2. start talking about after discussing something else
3. repeat something, usually quickly, to make sure it is correct
4. not discuss it so that we can discuss something else
5. return to discuss it at a future time
6. explain in detail
7. discuss or give our attention to
8. noun: a practice or repetition to make sure something is correct (from the verb run through)

Note that some of the phrasal verbs above can have the object before or after the particle:

bring sth up or bring up sth leave sth aside or leave aside sth spell sth out or spell out sth

B Communicating and interacting with others
In these dialogues the second speaker uses a phrasal verb to repeat the first speaker's meaning.

Jim: I wish they had done what they said they would do.
Nan: Yes, they should have kept to what they promised and not changed their minds.
Freda: I don't know who to ask for help or advice on this matter. It's very delicate.
Lou: Yes, it’s difficult to know who to turn to, isn’t it?
Anne: Lucy was extremely enthusiastic and excited about coming to work for us.
Fiona: Yes, she was absolutely bubbling over with excitement when I spoke to her.
Paul: She acts as if she was the boss, telling everyone what to do.
Mia: Yes, she's always ordering people about/around.
Karen: I saw a sign saying that the car park will be closed tomorrow. Can you tell everybody else, please?
Tony: Yes, I'll pass the news on*. I’ll send an e-mail to everyone in the office.
Harry: I see Grace said no to the job.
Zoë: Yes, she turned the offer down*.

*The object can also appear after the particle in these two phrasal verbs.

Describing public events

Human Circus at the London Arts Centre

The show was fully booked up\(^1\) for weeks, and when it opened last night, the public poured in\(^2\) and very soon the London Arts Centre was packed out\(^3\). But why? What had they come to see? Human beings who take off\(^4\) circus animals, with men in cat suits who stand in\(^5\) for the real lions and tigers. The show was put on\(^6\) by its creators to protest against traditional circuses and to send a message about cruelty to animals. The show was timed to tie in with\(^7\) the National Protection of Animals Week. It was a good idea, but the standard of the performances was third-rate and an embarrassing number of people simply walked out\(^8\) before it ended. There were some amusing moments when the performers sent up\(^9\) typical circus folk, but overall it was a dismal show. Despite the large turnout\(^10\) for the show’s first night, I doubt it will attract many people during the rest of its seven-day run.

The total on the bill and the total on the credit card statement should match up, but don’t [be the same]. There must be a mistake.
Exercises

35.1 Look at A and B. Then complete this book review using the phrasal verbs from the box below. Put the verbs into the most appropriate form.

- check up on
- come under
- draw on/upon
- point out
- track down
- turn to

Highland Tracks is an unusual book about the history of Scotland. The author has managed to (1) a number of previously unpublished sources. He has (2) these to argue that the current political situation in the United Kingdom owes a great deal to the separate histories of Scotland and England. After analysing the historical relationship between these two countries, the author then (3) the relationship between Scotland and France. He (4) that traditionally they had a much warmer relationship than either country had with England. The writer uses his imagination quite freely and the book should really (5) the heading of fiction rather than non-fiction. It is a very interesting work although anyone seriously wishing to investigate Scottish history should (6) many of the facts presented by this author.

35.2 Correct the errors in this paragraph. There are seven in total. Each error is a matter of either an extra word or wrong word order.

Hannah and Bill were playing a game. Hannah had thought of a football star and Bill was trying to find who it was out. He turned his father to but she pointed it out that she knew absolutely nothing about football. He would have to try to track the answer himself down and to watch out any clues for that Hannah might deliberately give. After ten minutes Bill still hadn't latched up on so he gave himself up and Hannah told him the answer: Ronaldo.

35.3 Find three collocations for these verbs from the opposite page. Use a dictionary if necessary.

Example Someone might watch out for problems, difficulties or danger.

1. You might check up on ____________, ____________ or ____________.
2. You might point out ____________, ____________ or ____________.
3. Someone might find out ____________, ____________ or ____________.
4. You might take in ____________, ____________ or ____________.
5. ____________, ____________ or ____________ might slip out.

35.4 Some of the phrasal verbs on the opposite page are used in a metaphorical rather than a literal way. In the sentences below these verbs are used in a literal way. What do they mean?

1. As they drove through the town Gisela's father pointed out anything he thought might interest the children.
2. In the scene at the end of the film, watch out for the man sitting in the café behind Leonardo DiCaprio — that's my brother!
3. The dog quickly tracked the rabbit down to where it was hiding under the garden shed.
4. Marian managed to slip out of the house without anyone noticing.
5. Polly turned to the man on her left and started chatting to him about his work.
Solving problems

Talking about problems

Tom: What’s the matter? Why are you looking so worried?
Emily: I’ve got a few problems at work and I don’t know what to do about them.
Tom: Well, why don’t we talk them over\(^1\) together?
That might help you to sort yourself out\(^2\).
Emily: OK, thanks. Well, first of all, Julia was going to give a very important presentation tomorrow but she says she’s ill and isn’t going to be able to do it. I think she’s just bottled out\(^3\) as it’s for such an important client. Feeling a bit ill was just the perfect let-out\(^4\) for her. I’d do it myself but I’m busy with meetings all day.
Tom: Well, that calls for\(^5\) quick action if the presentation is tomorrow. You’d better do it yourself if it’s so important. Just cancel your other meetings.
Emily: I guess I’ll have to. The next problem is that personal belongings have been going missing from people’s desks during the day.
Tom: Oh dear. You should deal with\(^6\) that problem as quickly as possible. Let’s make a list of possible suspects ...

1 discuss something before making a decision
2 spend time dealing with your personal problems
3 (informal) decided not to do something because she was afraid
4 (noun) excuse or way of avoiding doing something she said she’d do
5 needs or deserves a particular action or quality
6 take action to achieve something

Finding a solution

Now read what Emily did about her problems at work.

She faced up to\(^1\) the fact that she would have to do the important presentation herself, so she immediately contacted her personal assistant to ask her to see about\(^2\) postponing her meetings for the next day. As for the thefts, she realised that the solution to finding the office thief lay in\(^3\) working out exactly who could have been in the office when each of the thefts took place. So she came up with\(^4\) a plan that enabled her to check who had been there at each of the times concerned. That narrowed down\(^5\) the suspects to two people. She questioned them both and the guilty one soon confessed.

1 accepted that a difficult situation existed
2 deal with something or arrange for something to be done
3 would be found in (from the verb lie in something)
4 thought of or suggested something that might solve a problem
5 made something, usually a list or choice, smaller and clearer by removing what is irrelevant or less important

36.2 A father is talking to his son who he thinks is very lazy. The underlined expressions have got mixed up. The particles are correct, but the verbs are incorrect. Put the correct verbs in.

It's time you faced yourself out. You're 23 now and you still haven't got a job! You've got to come up to reality. It's about time you realised that the secret of success talks in taking positive action. Over the next couple of days, I will expect you to lie up with a few ideas about how you're going to improve your situation, or else you can go and live somewhere else. Why don't you go and sort about that job Uncle Herbert offered you at his factory? I've offered to help deal things over with you, but you never seem to want my help. Yet you don't see with things yourself. Sometimes I think you're just a waste of space!

36.3 This is how Tom and Emily's conversation in A continued. What do you think the five underlined phrasal verbs mean?

Emily: Well, it's just dawned on me that the thefts have always happened on the top floor. So it couldn't be anyone who never goes up there. That actually rules out quite a lot of people.

Tom: Think some more about exactly where and when things were stolen and you'll probably find that the answer jumps out at you.

Emily: Thanks, Tom. It's good to work through things with you! It really helps me to sort things out!

FOLLOW UP Choose five of the phrasal verbs from this unit that you would particularly like to learn. Look them up in a good dictionary, for example the Cambridge International Dictionary of Phrasal Verbs, and copy out any useful example sentences that you find there.

Exercises

37.1 Complete this dialogue using verbs or particles from A.

Sarah: Do you think you’re going to take that job in New York, Kenny?
Kenny: Well, I’ve been thinking it _______________ (1) and trying to _______________ (2) up all the positives and negatives, but I’m finding it really hard to come to a decision. I’ve run it _______________ (3) the family but they all have different views. My younger child is really keen on the idea but the older one isn’t. My wife says we have to think _______________ (4) and imagine how things would be for the kids when they’re a bit older.
Sarah: So how long do they give you to _______________ (5) through all the implications and come to a decision?
Kenny: Unfortunately, I have to make up my mind by next week.
Sarah: Well, why don’t you _______________ (6) on it. Things might seem clearer in the morning.

37.2 Answer these questions about yourself, using full sentences.

1. When you have an important decision to make in your personal or your professional life, who would you usually run it by first?
2. If you are worried about a situation at work, do you usually think it over immediately or decide to sleep on it first?
3. You have enough money for only one of these – a special holiday or a car. Which would you prefer to do without?
4. In what ways do people plan ahead for their retirement?
5. What sorts of things might people chicken out of doing?

37.3 Rewrite these sentences using the word in brackets, so that they keep the same meaning.

1. We should take into consideration the fact that he is still only young. (ALLOW)
2. I really can’t help you as I have a lot of things to do today. (ON)
3. He wants to stop having art classes at school next year so he can do extra music. (OPT)

6. I could make without having to go to a conference this weekend.
7. In deciding how much holiday money we need, we should allow the fact for that food is very expensive there.
Disagreeing

Disagreement at work

There was an outcry at work today because the boss announced that he wanted us all to take a pay cut. We had a union meeting at lunchtime and we all agreed to stick together and refuse to agree to his requests. Our union leader spoke out very clearly to our boss and to the local press this afternoon. We’re sure that the boss will have to give in in the end. Although in some ways I’d rather stay out of it myself, I have no choice but to support my fellow union members.

Private disagreements

Read Cilla’s letter to an agony aunt, Esther.

Dear Esther,

Please can you help me. My big sister and I always used to be good friends, but we fell out when I started going out with a new boyfriend. Now she is always trying to put me down and it is really beginning to get to me. My boyfriend usually tries to stick up for me, but then she just laughs at him too. Two years ago my boyfriend used to go out with my sister, but surely she doesn’t hold this against us? What can we do?

Cilla.

Back

The verb back is often used to refer to the position you take in an argument or decision.

- up sb (or back sb up) = to say that someone is telling the truth
- down = admit that you are wrong or have been defeated, often because you are forced to
- out = decide not to do something that you were going to do or had agreed to do

Examples:

When I make my point at the meeting, please back me up.

The government backed down on its controversial plans to increase income tax.

Jill had agreed to come sailing with us tomorrow, but she’s backed out.
Exercises

38.1 In this radio interview a protester is angry about a plan to build a new road through some beautiful woodland. Complete the interview using verbs from the opposite page.

Reporters: Now, Mr Humfrey, you have .......................................................... (1) out recently against the new road plan. Do you think your protest campaign can change the decision?

Protester: Well, there are a number of different groups opposed to this plan, and if we .......................................................... (2) together we can force the authorities to rethink.

Reporters: But do you really think the authorities will be prepared to .......................................................... (3) down over this? The Minister has said the road plan must go ahead.

Protester: This isn’t a small protest. There’s been a massive public .......................................................... (4). People are not willing to see their environment destroyed by road building. The Highways Department must listen to us or face the consequences.

Reporters: The consequences? Do you mean violent protest as with the Knox Bridge?

Protester: Not violent protest, no. We have always emphasised to our members that if violence erupts they should .......................................................... (5) out of it and keep our protest peaceful. We condemn violence. No, I’m talking about a huge, non-violent wave of protest.

Reporters: And you think that, in this way, the government will be forced to .......................................................... (6) in?

Protester: Yes, I believe they will simply have to listen.

Praising and criticising

Max: Now that you’ve been in our company for a month, what do you think of the other people in your department?

David: Well, there is one outstanding person and that’s Jessica. She’s a first-class personal assistant. She stands out from the others.

Max: That’s good to hear. What about Rick? What do you think of him?

David: He’s very able, but I wish he wasn’t such a show-off! I don’t know who he’s trying to impress.

Max: It’s the female staff, I think. He always shows off more with women around.

David: Yes, I guess he’s just a bit screwed-up. But otherwise his performance is fine – his work certainly measures up.

Max: So there are no real problems then?

David: Well, I am very worried about Sally. She seems to be screwing everything up at the moment. I’d had such good reports of her that it really surprised me. I tried asking her what she was playing at but she just burst into tears.

Max: Why don’t you have a word with Jessica? Perhaps she can find out what’s wrong.

Ways of criticising

If you lay into someone, you criticise or attack them in an angry way.

The headmaster really laid into the boys for arriving in school so late.

If you pick on someone, you choose one person from a group of people to criticise or treat unfairly, especially when they are smaller or weaker than you.

Mark was a quiet, studious child and the big boys in the class used to pick on him.

If you run down someone or something, or run someone or something down, you criticise that person or thing, often unfairly.

Pam’s big sister is always running her down even though Pam is far cleverer than her.

If you hit back, you criticise or attack someone who has criticised or attacked you.

Jack is constantly criticising his sons – I’m sure they’ll hit back eventually.

If you take out something on someone or take something out on someone, you treat someone badly because you are upset or angry, even though they have done nothing wrong.

Of course Mary is upset at losing her job but she shouldn’t take it out on her family.

If you rub something in (informal), you talk to someone about something which they want to forget because they feel bad about it.

I know it was all my fault. I just wish everyone would stop rubbing it in!
Exercises

40.1 In the dialogue in A opposite there are three phrasal verbs which have related noun or adjective forms. Write down the phrasal verbs and their related forms and explain the connection between them.

40.2 Read these remarks by different people and then answer the questions below by writing the correct name in the box.

Rana: I decided I had to defend myself against all the criticisms, so I did.

Barry: I couldn’t believe how aggressively she attacked me and criticised me.

Laura: Everyone was treating me badly because of what happened, but I had no part in it.

Ahmed: He chose to attack me because I’m junior to him and can’t defend myself.

Antonia: I wanted to forget the whole incident, but he insisted on reminding me of it.

Julia: He was always saying negative things about me to other people; it’s just not right.

1. Who felt that someone was rubbing it in?
2. Who felt that someone was always running them down?
3. Who felt that they had to hit back?
4. Who felt someone had picked on them?
5. Who felt that people were taking it out on them?
6. Who felt that someone laid into them?

4. I wish Ed wouldn’t try to impress all the time! (SHOW)
5. If you make such a stupid mistake again, you’ll lose your job. (SCREW)
6. I know I was stupid but please don’t remind me. (RUB)
7. Joe’s father spoke very angrily to him for scratching his new car. (LAID)
8. Why does everyone always blame me for everything? (PICK)
Exclamations and warnings

The exclamations and warnings on this page are all typical of informal, spoken English.

Reactions and responses

Ahmed: I just wanted to ask you a couple of questions.
Sara: Fine. No problem. Fire away! [something you say to tell someone you’re ready for them to start asking you questions, or to start speaking]
Hilary: Oh, everything is so awful at the moment.
Petra: Oh, lighten up, will you! You’ll make everyone as miserable as you! [something you say to tell someone to stop being so serious or annoyed]
Vera: Joanna wants you to give a talk to her students next Monday.
Dan: Joanna? Next week? Hang on / hold on! Who’s Joanna? Is she someone I know? [something you say when you are confused or surprised by something and you need time to think]
Kylie: I feel like killing Roger! I’m never, ever going to speak to him again!
Lorna: Steady on! I know he acted stupidly, but he’s not a bad person really. [something you say to tell someone that you think what they are saying is too extreme]
Gary: You see, what I want to say is, well, I mean, it’s like, er, it’s difficult to say it.
Ken: Come on! Spit it out! What is it? [come on something you say to encourage someone to do something you want them to do, especially to hurry up, to try harder, or to tell you something; spit it out something you say to encourage someone to tell you something which they do not want to tell you]
Lou: Some of the students are very poor, and can’t afford textbooks.
Kate: Poor! Come off it! They have enough money for mobile phones. [something you say to tell someone that you do not believe them or that you disagree with them] with my work. How am I doing?

   Rob: Very well! ........................................ You'll soon be getting a promotion.

41.3 Answer the following questions.

1. Which exclamation on the opposite page is connected with the idea of shooting a gun?
2. Which exclamation is connected with the idea of pressing your foot down on the accelerator pedal of a car?
3. Which exclamation is connected with the idea of forcing out the liquid in your mouth?

41.4 Divide the exclamations from the box below into pairs that have approximately the same meaning. What is the basic meaning for each pair? Describe a situation when each pair of expressions might be used.

| Watch out! | Hold on! | Mind out! | Hurry up! | Step on it! | Hang on! |
The classroom and learning

A Things the teacher says

With all the verbs in these examples, the particle can either go before or after the object, e.g. give in your homework or give your homework in.

The teacher says …

- Give/Hand in your homework tomorrow, please.
- Rose, give/hand out these worksheets, please.
- Jo, rub out what’s written on the board, please.
- Work out the answers without using a calculator.
- Cross out any rough work when you have found the answer.
- Take care not to miss out any of the exam questions.

The teacher wants:

- … the students to give her their work the next day.
- … Rose to give each student a worksheet*.
- … Jo to clean the board.
- … the students to do some maths without using calculators.
- … the students to put a line through any rough work.
- … the students not to forget to answer any of the exam questions.

*Sheets of paper that everyone in a class or lecture receives a copy of are called handouts. These might be worksheets (i.e. have exercises on them) or they might contain a text or some reference material.

B Other classroom phrasal verbs

Tamara was ill for a month and so she fell behind with her schoolwork. [failed to do her schoolwork by a particular time] She is going to find it difficult to catch up. [reach the same standard as the rest of the class]

Pupils often play up when a teacher is new or inexperienced. [behave badly]

Although Maggie had done good work throughout the year she messed up her exam. [did her exam badly]

The teacher cleared the books from the table and spread out the map. [opened out something that was folded]

Tip: Listen carefully to instructions in English from your teacher and note down any phrasal verbs they use. If you are not sure what they mean, ask them for an explanation.

42.2 Would Tim's parents be pleased or not if their son's teacher told them the following?
1 Tim was playing up in class last week.
2 Tim messed up his homework.
3 Tim has been helping a classmate who has fallen behind.
4 Tim has caught up with the rest of the class.
5 Tim didn't hand in his homework.
6 Tim missed out some important work.

42.3 Complete this story, using appropriate phrasal verbs from the opposite page. Write the verbs in the correct tense.

Last term Cath missed three weeks of school and so she ________________ (1) with her studies. She did all she could to try to ________________ (2) with the other students but she couldn’t manage. When it came to the maths test at the end of term she just cou,dn’t ________________ (3) the answers. She spent all her time on half of the question paper and ________________ (4) the other half, so inevitably she failed. Because she had ________________ (5) the test, her parents decided she’d better have a maths tutor over the holidays. In this week’s test she came top of the class.

42.4 Rewrite these sentences using more informal phrasal verbs instead of the underlined verbs.

1 Students often misbehave, when they are bored in class.
2 The teacher erased the new words from the board and then tested us.
3 We have to submit our registration forms for the exam on Friday.
4 I usually omit my middle name when I am filling in forms.
5 Some people were distributing leaflets about a demonstration in the town centre.

42.5 Answer these questions using full sentences.
1 Why are you often asked to cross out rough work in an exam?
2 If a teacher gives out a sheet listing all the kings and queens of Britain, is that a worksheet or a handout or both?
3 Why do most pupils carry an eraser in their pencil cases?
4 How easy would it be for you to work out how many euros are equal to 250 US dollars?
5 What do you think is the reason for pupils playing up in class?
Student life: courses and exams

Enrolling on courses
Look at this information leaflet for students at Welney College. Then look at how David explains the system informally to a friend, using phrasal verbs. The numbers (1, 2, etc.) help you to match the phrasal verbs with their meanings.

David:
- We break up¹ on 18 December and go back² on 8 January, so we’ve got about a three-week break.
- But we’ve got to sign up³ for courses for next term before 12 December.
- You have to go to all the lectures; if you drop out⁴ before the end, you don’t get the credits.
- And you have to write up⁵ your course essay and submit it a week before the course ends.
- If you fail 30% or more of your courses, they throw you out⁶ of the college.

- Autumn term ends¹ on 18 December. Spring term begins² on 8 January.
- Students wishing to register for³ spring term courses should do so before 12 December.
- Any student not completing a course⁴ will not receive credits for that course.
- Course essays must be submitted in a final form⁵ seven days before the end of a course.
- Students failing more than 30% of their total coursework will be expelled⁶ from the college.

A. Jobsworth, Academic Administrator

Before an exam

Six tips for exam success
- Keep your reading up¹ during the term so that you have less to read just before the exam.
- Brush up on² some of the things you learnt a long time ago; they may possibly come up³ in the exam.
- Don’t just mug up⁴ on the key points you need for the exam and hope that you’ll scrape through⁵ with little effort.
- On the other hand, don’t try to do everything. Swotting up⁶ on everything you have done all term means you will have to revise a lot of useless things too.
- Concentrate on polishing up⁷ the most important areas and your best skills.
- Don’t fool yourself that you’ll pass the exam on the basis of what you’ve picked up⁸ during the lectures and classes. You will need to revise!

¹ continue to do something
² practise and improve your skills or your knowledge of something, usually something you learned in the past but have partly forgotten
³ if a question or a subject comes up in an exam, that question is asked or questions about that subject are asked in the exam (often + on)
⁴ (informal) quickly try to learn the main facts about a subject, especially before an exam (often + on)
⁵ manage with a lot of difficulty to succeed in something
⁶ (informal) learning as much as you can about something, especially before an exam (often + on)
⁷ practising and improving your skills or your knowledge of something
⁸ learnt by absorbing it rather than studying it
Exercises

43.1 Rewrite these sentences using the words in brackets, so that they keep the same meaning.

1. I'm going to register for a course in statistics next year. (SIGN)
2. Several students did not complete the Moral Philosophy course. (DROP)
3. Our course finishes on 20 June. (BREAK)
4. He was forced to leave university after one term. He'd done no work at all. (THROW)
5. I can't come out tonight. I have to have my essay finished for tomorrow. (WRITE)
6. My next term at college starts on 12 September. (GO)

43.2 Which of these would make most students happy and why?

breaking up, dropping out, being thrown out, scraping through, mugging up, swotting up

43.3 Choose the best phrasal verb from the opposite page to complete this letter.

Cambridge, 20 June

Dear Auntie Meg,

At last my first year exams are over. It's such a relief. I feel as if I've done nothing but ____________ (1) for them for ages. Although I'd ____________ (2) with work quite well during the year, I still needed to ____________ (3) everything that we had covered, of course. Fortunately, everything that I hoped would ____________ (4) in the exam paper did. So I hope I've done OK and haven't just ____________ (5). Now all I have to do is ____________ (6) one course assignment, which I need to hand in by the end of term.

We don't ____________ (7) till the end of the month and so I won't be home till then. We don't ____________ (8) until the end of September, so it'll be a lovely long break. I look forward to seeing you soon.

Love,

Suzanna

43.4 Correct the ten phrasal verb mistakes in this paragraph. Either the wrong particles or the wrong verbs have been used.

Dick hardly worked up at all for his exams. He brushed over on the history of the French Revolution, but no questions on the French Revolution got up in the exam. He was afraid that he would be thrown off university for failing his exams. However, he did just manage to scratch through them and so he will be in college when we return back next term. He has promised to try to keep through with work next year as he is planning to sign in for a couple of quite difficult courses, including business studies. He'll have to polish over his French because the business studies course involves spending a term in France working in a business. He thinks he can just lift up the language when he gets there, but I think he should study it before he goes because he only has school French.

FOLLOW UP

Go to the Mini dictionary at the end of this book and find more phrasal verbs with break. Is there a common theme in their meaning? If so, what is it?
Student life: reading and writing

A Reading

Now, your homework for the weekend. Can you all please read up on air pollution for next week. You’ll find a good chapter in your textbook on page 40, but you don’t need to read it all – just dip into it. Now please turn over the worksheet on your desk. Jane, will you please read out the paragraph at the top of the sheet?

1. read a lot about a particular subject in order to learn about it
2. read small parts of a book or magazine
3. turn a page so that you can see the other side
4. read aloud

C Improving a piece of writing

Dad: Your essay’s good but I think it would be better if you cut out this paragraph here. Also it’d be a good idea to add a paragraph summing up your main points at the end. This paragraph here is a bit strong – why not tone it down a bit? And your point about crime crops up in several places – why not deal with it in just one paragraph? And you only touch on the issue of government control. Surely that deserves a bit more space? In fact I really think you should try to set the whole thing out better!

Sons: Why don’t you just write it then, Dad?

1. removed
2. describing briefly the most important points
3. make it less critical or offensive
4. appears
5. mention briefly (also touch upon)
6. give all the details or explain clearly, especially in writing.
Exercises

44.1 Match the verbs on the left with an object from the right. There may be more than one answer.

1 scribble down a) a subject
2 make out b) a book or an article
3 fill in/out c) the page
4 jot down d) a rough draft of an essay
5 note down e) the times of the trains to London
6 write out f) the answer you have written
7 read up on g) a form or a questionnaire
8 dip into h) a few very quick notes
9 read out i) someone's phone number on a piece of paper
10 turn over j) a cheque for €250

44.2 Use the phrasal verbs from exercise 44.1 to complete these sentences. Write the verbs in the correct form. There may be more than one possible answer.

1 I get nervous when I have to ______________________ what I've written in class.
2 I haven't read the book in detail. I just ______________________ it.
3 The police officer just managed to quickly ______________________ the registration number of the car before it drove away at high speed.
4 I've made some notes for my speech; now I'm going to ______________________ in full.
5 Could you ______________________ the cheque to 'Wilson and Co.' please?
6 There are three forms to ______________________ for this visa application. (two answers)
7 We should ______________________ the departure times for flights to Rio de Janeiro.
8 I'll have to ______________________ international law for the exam.
9 Now ______________________ and let's see what's on the next page.
10 Hang on, I'll just ______________________ your address in case I forget it.

44.3 Look at this student essay, and the teacher's comments in the margin. Then complete what the teacher might say to the student using phrasal verbs from the opposite page.

The problems of pollution in the world cannot be solved overnight, since smoke from factories is a necessary evil, and cars and planes will always be noisy. Cleaning the environment is expensive. Jumbo jets make more pollution and noise than other planes. People's health is affected. Governments are completely stupid on questions of the environment.

It is very expensive to improve the environment.

1 Delete this sentence.
2 You only mention this very briefly, but it's an important issue.
3 This is too strong!
4 This point has already appeared once in your essay.
5 Summary needed!

I've put a line through this sentence; you should ______________________ (1).
And you only ______________________ (2) the question of health; you should have written more. Also you should ______________________ (3) what you say about governments; it's too strong. Then this last point has already ______________________ (4) once; you don't need to repeat it. And finally, the essay ends too suddenly. You should ______________________ (5) your arguments.
Work: jobs and career

A Talking informally about your work or career

Well, to get ahead¹ in a job like mine you have to be prepared to take on² a lot of responsibility and work long hours.

When the boss first took me on³ he filled me in⁴ on what the job involved, but he didn’t tell me I would have to do so much travelling!

Well, I stood down⁵ as Chairman in 1998, and Mary Wilmott took over⁶. As you all know, she has carried out⁷ some important reforms in the company and has been very successful.

I’m 60 now, so I think it’s time for me to step down⁸ and hand over⁹ to a younger person.

¹ be successful in your job ² accept a particular job or responsibility ³ began to employ me ⁴ gave me the information I needed in order to do something ⁵ left an important job or official position so that someone else can do it instead ⁶ started doing a job or being responsible for something that someone else was doing or was responsible for before you ⁷ done or completed something, especially something important ⁸ leave your job, especially so that someone else can do it ⁹ give someone else responsibility or control

B More work-related phrasal verbs

Ellen: Frances, do you think you could fix up a staff meeting for me? [provide or arrange something for someone]

Frances: Yes, I’ll do that. When were you thinking of?

Ellen: Well, let’s pencil it in³ for Friday morning and see whether everyone else is free then. [arrange for something to happen on a particular date, knowing the arrangement might be changed later]

Keith: Why are you back home already? Did you knock off early today? [informal: stop working, usually at the end of a day]

Bob: I wish I could say that. The truth is I’ve just been laid off. [lost your job because there is no work for you to do, from the verb lay off someone]

Keith: Oh, I’m sorry to hear that.

Veronica: Did you ever follow up⁷ that phone call you had with the oil company? [do something in order to make the effect of an earlier action or thing stronger or more certain]

Jim: No, I really should do something about it.

Mona: It’s amazing how much we can get done when we all pull together, isn’t it? [work as a group in order to achieve something]

Ricky: Yes, although sometimes it’s also good if people just leave you to it. [informal: go away from someone so that they do something by themselves or so they can continue what they are doing]

   Certainly, I’ll ..........................
3 Could you arrange an appointment for me with the bank manager?
   Yes, I’ll ..........................
4 Why did you stand down as Director?
   Well, I’ve been doing it for years and I thought it was time to ..........................
5 Can we arrange a meeting for some time next week?
   Sure, why don’t we ..........................

45.4 Answer these questions about your own working life, using full sentences.
1 What kind of tasks do you have to carry out each day?
   2 At what time do you knock off each day?
2 Do you know anyone who has ever been laid off?
4 What qualities do you think you need to get ahead in the job that you do?
5 What did you do to get taken on for the job that you now have?
Work: being busy

Being busy

Nick: I haven’t seen you for ages. Have you been a bit tied up\(^1\) at work?

Tim: Yes, I’ve been incredibly busy. I was away for a conference and the work just piled up\(^2\) while I was away. I’ve been snowed under\(^3\) ever since. Although I slave away\(^4\) till seven at night and even work at weekends, I still can’t seem to catch up with\(^5\) everything!

Nick: Sorry, I asked!

1. been so busy that you are unable to see or speak to anyone else or go anywhere (informal)
2. became more and more (used of something unpleasant, e.g. work, bills or debts)
3. had so much work to do that I have problems dealing with it
4. work very hard with little or no rest
5. do something you did not have time to do earlier

Working hard

Ray: How are things going for you at work at the moment, Stella?

Stella: Well, we’re branching out\(^1\) into a new product line – children’s clothes – so I’m pretty busy. At the moment I’m working on\(^2\) some new designs for leisurewear. We’re working towards\(^3\) having a complete range for children of all ages. It’s quite difficult but I’m sure I’ll develop some good designs if I keep at\(^4\) it.

Ray: Well, you always were good at sticking at\(^5\) things.

Stella: Well, I’d certainly rather do a project myself than have to chase up\(^6\) other people to make sure they’re doing what they promised to do. But sometimes you have to do that just to keep things moving along\(^7\).

Ray: Do you think you could squeeze in\(^8\) lunch with me sometime?

Stella: Mm, possibly, but not till next week.

Ray: That’s fine. But don’t try to wriggle out of\(^9\) it at the last minute!

2. Look at the box below. Which of these phrasal verbs from the opposite page also have noun forms, and if so, what do the noun forms mean? Use a dictionary if necessary.
Starting and doing business

Tim Benson started up his own business in his first year at university. He set up a small company hiring out bicycles to other students. He was very successful and claims that his profits ran into thousands of euros a month, a lot of money for a student. As a spin-off he used to sell cycling clothes and equipment to the students and that also was a good earner for him. ‘I was really happy with that set-up, says Tim, ‘as I loved cycling myself.’

Ups and downs in business

Read this conversation about Ken’s business activities.

Bob: Doesn’t Ken own his computer business any more?
Rita: No, he sold up and used the money to buy a small chain of clothing outlets.
Bob: Really? Has he done well?
Rita: Yes. His turnover was so big he managed to take over a jewellery company that had been a success but was winding down because of bad management. They were no longer able to pay for the upkeep of the stores.
Bob: Wow! How much did he have to pay of his own money?
Rita: Well, he poured a lot of money into it – he puts it around a million – but he saved it from going under and it’s making a profit now. In fact he says the profit on wedding rings alone runs to several millions. He says he’s glad he decided to risk the takeover.
Bob: So he’s a rich man now then?
Rita: He’s very rich, but you know something? He still drives around town in that old car of his!

Read an English horoscope page, either in an English magazine or on the Internet. Note down as many phrasal verbs as you can. Use a dictionary to help you understand the meanings and write down a sentence to help you remember the new expressions.
Dear Auntie Jo,
I think I’ve fallen for the new guy who’s just started work in our office. He fitted in at once. He and I get along really well, but he hasn’t asked me out yet. What should I do?
Miranda Buxton

Dear Auntie Jo,
I’ve been going out with my boyfriend for ten months now and we’re planning to get married next year. But last week we fell out over something really stupid. He heard a male friend of mine tell me my hair looked nice and he thought it was a chat-up line. He got so jealous and wouldn’t speak to me. Do you think a minor falling-out like this is a bad sign for our future marriage, or am I worrying too much?
Tanya Wilson

1 having a romantic relationship with
2 had an argument that damaged our relationship
3 (noun, informal) a way of talking which suggests you are sexually attracted to someone and want them to be attracted to you (from the verb chat up)

Exercises

52.1 Auntie Jo, the agony aunt, is replying to some of the letters she gets. Fill the gaps in her replies.

Dear Tanya,
You say you're worried because you and your fiancé have (1) .................................................. out. Well, take my advice, a temporary (2) .................................................. with someone you love is not the end of the world. And your boyfriend shouldn't worry even if another man does try a (3) .................................................. up line with you; if you love each other such silly things will never threaten your marriage.

Dear Lisa,
Your letter about your office party is typical of many I get. Everybody tries to (4) .................................................. off with somebody and a lot of the evening is spent in (5) .................................................. people up in the hope of starting something with them. But be careful. By accepting the first guy who asks you, you could end up with a reputation for always flirting and never being serious, and then the really nice guys won't go (6) .................................................. you, and nothing you do or say will ever turn them (7) .................................................. !

Dear Jody,
You say you've (8) .................................................. for the new student on your course, but that you're afraid he won't (9) .................................................. in with your gang of friends. I suggest you (10) .................................................. him out and then meet up with your friends later in the evening. If they don't (11) .................................................. , then the choice is simple: either you lose him and keep your friends, or you keep him and perhaps lose 'friends' who aren't really true friends.

52.2 Correct the mistakes with the phrasal verbs in these sentences.
1. My friend and I fell away last week because she thinks I'm in love with her boyfriend.
2. The new student was finding it difficult to fit on, as he was older than the other students.
3. When George met his new colleague he really fell to her and now he talks about her all the time.
4. Barry and David hit it off immediately when they were introduced.
5. That horrible man over there was trying to talk me up. Ugh!

52.3 Rewrite the underlined parts of this private diary, using phrasal verbs from the opposite page.

5 Mon
Met a really beautiful girl at the disco - talked to her to try to attract her but didn't invite her to go out. I'm useless!

6 Tue
Have become very attracted to the new girl in my maths class. She's adapted well to the group.

7 Wed
Nigel started a romantic relationship with Kari at the party last night. Why am I jealous?

8 Thu
Sally Wilcox really makes me feel sexually attracted. She's gorgeous!

9 Fri
No success with the girl in the maths class. Don't think I'm the type she likes or feels attracted to!

10 Sat

11 Sun
Greg and Clare seem to be enjoying a very friendly relationship these days. They think no one has noticed! Ha-ha!
Here are some more letters to Auntie Jo, the agony aunt from Unit 52. Read these letters from a popular young people’s magazine along with Jo’s replies on the right.

Dear Auntie Jo,

My boyfriend and I have just split up after a year together. For the first six months everything was great, but then we just seemed to drift apart. I didn’t really want to finish with him, but he wanted to break off our relationship. Should I ask him if we can start again and try to rediscover the magic of those first six months?

Linda (aged 19)

When two people grow apart, it’s usually because they are basically different. The fact that he broke off with you means he recognises that you don’t really have a lot in common. You’re young. Let him go!

ended a relationship or marriage gradually become less friendly and the relationship ends end a romantic relationship (informal) end a relationship gradually become less friendly, often because you do not have the same interests and opinions any more ended a romantic relationship with someone

Dear Auntie Jo,

My parents broke up last year and I’ve been depressed ever since. I see each of them regularly, and I love them, but I feel they have let me down. Is there anything I can do to persuade them to make up and live together again so that my sister and I can have a normal life like other kids?

Brian (aged 16)

Brian, a marriage break-up is always very sad, but there’s not much you can do. They are adults and they have made their own choices. You feel you’re missing out on a normal young person’s life, but you’re not alone. A third of all marriages in Britain end in divorce. Be brave and talk to your friends about it.

their marriage or relationship ended disappointed me by failing to do what they agreed or what I expected them to do forgive each other and become friendly again (noun) the act or event of breaking up not doing or getting something you would enjoy or that would be good for you, or not having something other people have

Dear Auntie Jo,

A couple of years ago my uncle ran off with another woman. She was much younger than him, in fact she was only 20 and he was 52. It ended in disaster. He left her last year and returned to his wife. But the neighbours all stare at him and laugh at him; it seems he’ll never live it down. He’s doing his best to settle down and be a good husband and uncle again, but I feel so unhappy for him. What can I do?

Iona (aged 17)

People can be very cruel, Iona, and your uncle may have to settle for a lot more embarrassment before the neighbours forget what happened. The best thing you can do is to show your uncle that you love him and support him and show him that you accept him, and all his faults.

secretly left a place with someone in order to live with them or marry them, especially when other people think this is wrong stop feeling embarrassed about something you did by waiting until people forget about it start living in a place where you intend to stay for a long time accept something, often something that is not exactly what you want, or is not the best

Tip: You can sometimes fix phrasal verbs in your mind by writing them in true sentences about a person you know or an experience you've had.
54.1 Read these remarks by different people and then answer the questions below by writing the correct name in the box.

George: I'm determined to have it out with my parents. We can't go on in this way.
Dermot: My sister is always mouthing off about something. I wish she'd shut up.
Michael: I think they were trying to play down the whole affair.
Yolanda: The boss seems to have gone back on her word.
Yvette: Huh! My brother has owned up at last! It's about time!
Gina: I felt my roommate was trying to wind me up.

1. Who is annoyed because someone talks about subjects as if they know more than everyone else or someone complains a lot about something? ____________
2. Who thought someone told them something that wasn't true in order to make a joke or to annoy them? ____________
3. Who is going to talk to someone about something they have said or done that has made them angry, in order to solve the problem? ____________
4. Who thinks someone is trying to make people believe that something is not very important or is not likely to happen? ____________
5. Who is satisfied that someone has admitted they have done something wrong? ____________
6. Who thinks someone has broken a promise to do something? ____________

54.2 Complete these sentences using words from the opposite page.

1. I felt she was _______________ something from me. I asked her what it was, but she wouldn't _______________ on.
2. Oh, _______________ up, will you! Don't _______________ on at me all the time!
3. It's very difficult to _______________ him down. He never likes to make firm plans.
4. She's an excellent employer. She never _______________ down to her staff, however inadequate they seem.
5. Georgina _______________ out her life story to me late last night. She's never _______________ up to me in that way before, and in her _______________ of emotion she revealed to me that she'd been in prison years ago.

54.3 Read these sentences containing rather formal verbs and then write their more informal phrasal verb equivalents in the brackets. Use a dictionary if necessary.

1. I promise I won't reveal _______________ to Simon that you're moving out of the flat.
2. The government has reneged _______________ on its promise to increase student grants.
3. I had a feeling she was concealing _______________ something from me, something unpleasant.
4. She confessed _______________ to having lied about the missing money.
5. I have finally decided to confront _______________ Jamie. We simply can't continue with so much tension in the air.
Cathy has just had a new baby and is e-mailing her friend, Dolores. Follow the correspondence between the two friends.

Hi Dolores,
You'll be pleased to hear the new baby's doing fine. We've decided to name him after his grandfather, Patrick. He has blue eyes and quite fair hair, so he takes after his father. I find it hard to imagine myself bringing up a child. Wish me luck for the next 18 years!
Love, Cathy

Hi Cathy,
Glad to hear everything's OK with the new baby. Babies grow up so quickly and 18 years will seem like 18 weeks, I'm sure! Are you going to carry on working or will you stay at home now? When I had my first child I went back to work, so I really ended up doing two full-time jobs!
Take care,
Dolores

Hi again,
Thanks for the encouraging words! I don't know what will become of my career. At the moment all I care about is that little Patrick will be a nice kid, that he won't drop out of school or college, that he won't turn to crime or drugs and wind up in prison, and that he'll be healthy and happy, just like your kids.
Talk to you soon,
Cathy

Hi there,
I'm sure the little lad will live up to all your hopes and expectations! A lot of 13-year-olds could pass for 17 or 18 these days, and the kind of values that were handed down to us by our parents and grandparents are considered old-fashioned now. But I'm still optimistic. Do let me know how things go. Regards to Peter.
Love, Dolores

1. give him the same name as someone else
2. has a similar appearance or character as an older member of his family
3. looking after a child and educating them until they are an adult

55.3 Complete this short biography, using verbs from the opposite page.

RICHARD POTTS WAS BORN 100 years ago today in the same small town in Wales that he lives in now. He was (1) ________________ after his maternal grandfather, Richard Jones, the distinguished sculptor, whom he was later said to (2) ________________ in both character and appearance. The young Richard was orphaned at an early age and was (3) ________________ up by an aunt. He failed to (4) ________________ up to his relatives' hopes for him by (5) ________________ out of school at the age of 15. They were very concerned about what would (6) ________________ of him and, although there must have been plenty of temptations encouraging the young boy to (7) ________________ to gambling and drink, he resisted them all and (8) ________________ up taking a job in a coal mine. He impressed the managers so much that he eventually (9) ________________ up as a member of the board. He (10) ________________ on working until five years ago, when ill health forced him to retire, but he is still a familiar figure around the streets of his home town.

Read an obituary or article about the death of someone famous from any English language newspaper and note down any phrasal verbs that you find in it.
Health

Symptoms

These speakers all have health problems that can be described using phrasal verbs or in the case of blocked-up, an adjective based on a phrasal verb.

1. I keep throwing up. (informal) vomiting
2. I think I’m coming down with flu. becoming ill, usually with a disease that is not very serious, e.g. flu, a cold
3. I’m fighting off a sore throat. (informal) see note 2
4. I’ve put my shoulder out. trying hard to get rid of
5. I’ve gone down with flu too. dislocated or injured by making a bone move from its usual place
6. I can’t shake off this cold. get rid of
7. My ankle has swollen up. become larger or rounder than usual
8. My nose is blocked-up. (adjective) filled so that you are unable to breathe normally
9. I’ve passed out a couple of times recently. become unconscious; fainted

One medical story

Maggie has had a hard time recently. Firstly, her sister broke down after her divorce and was sick for several months. Maggie was still caring for her when her brother was hit on the head by a tile that fell from a roof. He was unconscious for a couple of days. Fortunately, he pulled through and has now more or less fully recovered although he does seem to have slowed down a lot. No sooner were they both better than their grandfather passed away and then just a few weeks later their grandmother passed on too.

1. broke down became mentally or physically ill because of an unpleasant experience
2. caring for looking after someone who is too ill, too young, or old to look after themselves
3. pulled through recovered from a serious illness
4. slowed down become less physically active than before
5. passed away died
6. passed on died

Tip: Try to learn phrasal verbs in chunks or longer phrases, e.g. I’m coming down with flu; She’s fighting off a cold; My nose is blocked-up.
Exercises

56.1 Complete this text, using particles from A.

I feel as if I'm coming ___________ (1) with flu. I'm fighting ___________ (2) a sore throat and my nose is constantly blocked—___________ (3). My glands have swollen ___________ (4) and, if I try to eat anything, I feel as if I'm going to throw ___________ (5). I wish I could shake it ___________ (6) as I have so much work to do. I can't afford to be absent.

56.2 Rewrite the underlined parts of these sentences, using a phrasal verb from the opposite page.

1 I've had a sore throat for a week now – I just can't get rid of it.
2 Meg hadn't eaten anything for 48 hours and so it wasn't surprising that she fainted in the middle of her gym lesson.
3 The doctors were afraid that the old man wouldn't survive the attack of pneumonia, but amazingly he recovered and was soon on his feet again.
4 I think I'm just about to get a cold – I feel a bit shivery.

Note: Do not confuse to sleep over with to oversleep. The verb to oversleep means to sleep longer than you should have done, e.g.
If I oversleep and am late for work again, I'll lose my job.

B  Daily routines

I've got a new job at the airport and have moved into a flat with a couple of friends. During the week I have to get up early as I have to be at the airport by 6.30 a.m. I try to be very quiet in the mornings so I don't wake up my flatmates. At the weekends I love sleeping in. On Saturdays I sometimes lie in till 11. I can't have a lie-in if I'm playing football though, which I sometimes do on Saturday mornings. On weekday evenings I turn in quite early, about 10.30 p.m. usually, but I stay up at weekends, of course. If I get home on Saturday night before my flatmates, I wait up until they arrive and we have a drink and a chat before going to bed.

1 get out of bed
2 make them become conscious
3 sleeping later in the morning than usual
4 stay in bed later in the morning than usual
5 (noun) longer time in bed in the morning than usual
6 go to bed
7 go to bed later than usual
8 stay awake because you are waiting for someone to arrive

Other socialising verbs
I met Peter the other day. He was asking after you. [ask for information about someone, especially about their health]

I’ll call round and see Uncle Jim after work today. [visit someone who lives near to you for a short time]

Please drop in/round any time – I’m usually at home. [informal: make a short visit to someone in their home, usually without arranging it before]

The boss has invited me out. I wonder what she wants? [ask someone to go with you to a place, e.g. a restaurant or the cinema]

A: I’ll bring that CD round for you to listen to tomorrow.
B: Great! Could you also bring round that book I lent you? [bring someone or something somewhere, especially to someone's house]
Exercises

59.1 Choose one of the phrasal verbs from A to report what Tim says in the sentences below.

EXAMPLE Tim: Would you like to come to the cinema? He _invited me out_.

1 Tim: Jane can come with you if you like.
   He said I could _come with Jane_ if I liked.
2 Tim: You can both come to my place after the film.
   He _invited us_ after the film.
3 Tim: I'll quickly go to the shop and get some biscuits on the way home.
   He said he would _go to the shop_ for some biscuits on the way home.
4 Tim: I love it when people come to visit me.
   He said he loved _having people_ visit.
5 Tim: You can borrow that CD I was telling you about if my friend returns it.
   He said I could borrow the CD if his friend _returns it_ before my party.

59.2 Correct the errors with the particles in these sentences.

1 My parents are always asking over you so I'll tell them your news next time I see them.
2 Do drop out some time when you're passing our house and have a cup of tea.
3 My uncle has invited me and a friend in to a smart restaurant to celebrate my birthday.
4 Of course you can bring your brother with when you come to our place tomorrow.
5 I often call about and see my grandmother on my way home from work.
6 I hope I'm not in trouble. The boss has just asked me to pop about to his office.

59.3 Explain the difference in meaning between these pairs of sentences.

1 a) I've got to pop up and see Bill in his office.
   b) I've got to pop down and see Bill in his office.
2 a) It's time I invited Andy and Becky over for a meal.
   b) It's time I invited Andy and Becky out for a meal.
3 a) Shall we call round and see Peggy this afternoon?
   b) Shall we drop round and see Peggy this afternoon?
4 a) I'll bring my niece round at the weekend.
   b) I'll bring my niece along at the weekend.

59.4 Write down four different ways in which you could invite someone to visit you at your place.
Use a different phrasal verb each time.

59.5 Here are some more phrasal verbs connected with the theme of socialising. What do you think the phrasal verbs in bold mean? Use a dictionary if necessary.

Kath: Did you enjoy your date with Paul?
Anne: Don't talk to me about Paul! He _stood me up_! I waited there for at least half an hour and then I decided just to go to the cinema on my own. It was really annoying because my sister had wanted to _tag along_ but I wouldn't let her and in the end I was all alone. I thought we were going to have this lovely romantic evening! If you _run across_ him, you can tell him I'm very annoyed with him!
Food and drink

Preparing food and drink
Martha was having a dinner party for some friends. A few days earlier she had prepared a chicken casserole and put it in the freezer to make sure it did not go off. On the morning of the dinner party she removed it from the freezer and thawed it out. Then before her friends arrived she put the chicken on and she made a salad. She heated up the casserole, making sure that it did not boil over.

1 become not good to eat because it is too old
2 let it gradually become warmer so that it was not frozen any more
3 began to cook food
4 made it hot
5 flow over the side of the pan

Serving food and drink
When her friends arrived, Martha handed round olives and other snacks and her boyfriend poured out drinks. He went round the room topping up glasses whenever he noticed that anyone needed a top-up. Then they sat at the table and had the chicken casserole. Everyone said how well it went with the salad and nothing was left over at the end of the meal.

1 offered something, especially food and drink, to each person in a group
2 filled glasses or cups with a drink
3 putting more drink into someone's glass or cup
4 (noun) more drink poured into a glass or cup (from the verb top up)
5 combined or tasted good with 6 remained or was not eaten

Styles of eating and drinking
As there were no leftovers the next day, Martha decided to get a takeaway. She ordered a curry to take away. Martha's brother says that she lives on/off curry because she eats it so often. Martha denies that, of course, but she admits that if ever she and her boyfriend eat out they always go to a curry restaurant.

1 (noun) food prepared for a previous meal but not eaten
2 (noun) a meal that you buy and take somewhere else to eat. Takeaway is also the place where you buy a meal like this, e.g. a Chinese takeaway.
3 buy prepared food in a shop or restaurant and take it somewhere else to eat
4 only eats a particular type of food
5 eat a meal in a restaurant not at home

You will find quite a few more phrasal verbs on the food theme if you look at the instructions in a recipe book, e.g. cut up an onion, take off the skins of the tomatoes, etc. If possible look in an English language recipe book or search for some recipes on the Internet and make a note of any phrasal verbs that you find there.
Exercises

60.1 Look at A and B opposite. Then complete these sentences with an appropriate phrasal verb.

1 Would you hand round the peanuts, please?
2 I think my sister lives on fish and chips.
3 Don’t forget to thaw out the gateau.
4 I don’t think that chips go with caviar.
The weather forecast

It will brighten up¹ in the north of England tomorrow morning, but the sun won’t last long and the region will soon cloud over² again. Rain in the east will clear up³ later. An area of high pressure means it should warm up⁴ over the next few days in most regions, except in the far north, where it will actually cool down⁵ a little because of strong north-easterly winds. On the south coast winds will pick up⁶ during the afternoon, becoming strong by the evening.

¹ the sky will become lighter and the sun will start to shine
² the sky will become covered with clouds
³ it will stop being rainy or cloudy
⁴ become warmer
⁵ become cooler
⁶ become stronger

Talking about the weather and its effects

Jim is talking about his camping trip to the Scottish mountains.

The weather was dreadful; we were there for a week and the storms just never let up¹. We were flooded out² twice in our tent and ended up staying in a hostel. It just poured down³ every day – one heavy downpour⁴ after another. We were rained off⁵ most days and couldn’t do any serious walking. Then one day we thought the storms had blown over⁶, so we climbed one of the highest peaks in the area. It started to snow. Luckily there was a cabin at the summit, so we took shelter there. We were snowed in⁷ for two days before we could get out and go back down again. I shall never forget it as long as I live!

¹ stopped or improved
² had to leave a home or place because of a flood
³ rained heavily
⁴ (noun) a very heavy period of rain (from the verb pour down)
⁵ if an outside activity is rained off, it cannot start or continue because it is raining
⁶ become less strong and then ended
⁷ were unable to leave that place because there was so much snow

Help yourself to learn phrasal verbs by drawing word diagrams based on one verb, e.g. pick, blow, or on one topic, e.g. weather.

d) A series of burglaries was reported in Brook Street and adjoining roads last night.
Power and authority

A The start of a political career

Interviewer: Why did you decide to stand for Parliament?
Politician: Well, I'd been a social worker for a number of years and that had opened my eyes to the huge social divisions in this country. I firmly believed that these were wrong. I wanted to help bring laws that would lessen the divisions between the rich and the poor. I wanted to do away with taxes for the poorest members of society and to clamp down on rich people who were attempting to avoid paying tax. In short, I wanted to do everything I could to stand up for the principles that I believed in.

1 compete in an election for an official position
2 introduce
3 abolish or get rid of
4 do something to stop or limit a particular activity (noun = clampdown)
5 defend something that you believe is important

B Life in Parliament

Interviewer: So, once you were elected, how did you go ahead with your plans for social change?
Politician: Well, although some other Members of Parliament from my party backed me up, the more influential ones told me not to be too hasty. I learnt then that our party had entered into an agreement with the country's top business leaders and had promised not to increase taxes for the wealthy for the time being.

Interviewer: Did you stand up to those influential MPs?
Politician: Yes, I told them I was not in Parliament to carry out the wishes of big business.

1 start to do something (noun = go-ahead: permission for something to start)
2 supported
3 officially agreed to do something
4 state opinions forcefully and refuse to change your mind or do what others want
5 do something you have been told to do

C Forming a new party

Interviewer: Did other MPs in your party still stand by you at this point?
Politician: Not all of them, but a few very good people did stick by me and we eventually decided to break away and form our own new party.

Interviewer: So, what happened next?
Politician: Unfortunately, none of us were re-elected at the next election but we have been continuing with our campaigns and hope that at some point in the not too distant future we may be able to carry out our plans to make society a better and fairer place.

1 continue to support
2 continue to support
3 stop being part of a group because you disagree with them or do not want to be controlled by them
4 do something that you have said you will do

TIP See if you can find any more phrasal verbs relating to this theme by looking at newspaper articles about political issues.

American and Australian phrasal verbs

Most phrasal verbs are used in all the countries where English is the main language. However, as English has developed in different countries some phrasal verbs have emerged with regional meanings. The distinctions between regional varieties of phrasal verbs are not clear-cut. In some parts of North America or Australia, UK phrasal verb equivalents are heard as frequently as their regional variations. Similarly, many phrasal verbs originating in the US or Australia are spreading to the UK through films and TV programmes.

A  North America

Here are some phrasal verbs more frequently used in North American varieties of English.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>US verb</th>
<th>UK equivalent</th>
<th>meaning</th>
<th>example</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>bawl out</td>
<td>tell off</td>
<td>speak angrily to someone</td>
<td>The boss bawled Jack out for losing the deal.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>call around</td>
<td>phone/ring round</td>
<td>telephone several people, often in order to find out information (in UK English call around usually means to visit someone)</td>
<td>I'll call around and see if I can get a good price.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>figure out</td>
<td>suss out or work out</td>
<td>find the solution to a problem or the answer to something</td>
<td>Let's try to figure out how much I owe you.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>goof off</td>
<td>mess about/around</td>
<td>behave stupidly or to waste time doing unimportant things</td>
<td>Tom spent too much time goofing off and failed his exams.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>wash up</td>
<td>freshen up</td>
<td>clean your hands and face with soap and water (in UK English wash up means to wash the dishes)</td>
<td>I'm sure you'd like to wash up after your journey.</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

US English sometimes adds a particle where UK English would use the verb on its own. For example, an American might say Wait up! or Listen up! rather than Wait! or Listen! These are used mainly as imperatives and the up emphasises the idea that the speaker is giving a command. Americans can also visit with friends or meet with colleagues, whereas a British speaker would just visit or meet them.

B  Australia

Here are some phrasal verbs which are typical of Australian English.

<td>cheer for</td>
<td>give support to a team or person</td>
<td>I'll be barracking for you in the competition tomorrow.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>belt into</td>
<td>throw yourself into</td>
<td>begin to do something quickly and with a lot of effort</td>
<td>We just belted into the job and got it finished in an hour.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>get into</td>
<td>lay into</td>
<td>criticise</td>
<td>She really got into me, I didn't think I deserved so much criticism.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>shoot through</td>
<td>do a runner</td>
<td>leave a place suddenly and often secretly</td>
<td>He's not here any more. He shot through a couple of days ago.</td>

New phrasal verbs

Many new phrasal verbs are invented in English every year. Some are invented because of social change and the need to develop words to describe new phenomena. These new phrasal verbs are particularly common in informal language and are frequently used by the media and young people so as to sound up-to-date and lively.

B  More examples of new phrasal verb expressions

Hi, Tanya
How are things with you? Better than with me, I hope. I feel totally stressed-out¹.
Things started badly when I was late for work today – I needed some money and stopped at a shop where I bought a load of things I didn’t really need but they still refused me cashback².
Then when I got to work I discovered that today wasn’t a dress-down³ day as I’d thought – and everyone else was looking smart while I’d come in my jeans.Then I discovered that all the emails I sent yesterday have bounced back⁴ to me. I feel like screaming! I’ve been working soooo hard for soooo long – I think I’m suffering from burnout⁵!
I wish I had loads of money – I’d go and veg out⁶ in the Caribbean.
Penny

¹ (adjective) very worried and anxious
² (noun) money from your bank account that you can get from a shop when you buy goods with a debit card
³ (adjective) used about a day for dressing in less formal clothes than normal
⁴ didn’t get to their destination and have been sent back
⁵ (noun) the condition of being ill or tired because you have been working too hard
⁶ relax by doing nothing (informal)

35.2 Hannah and Bill were playing a game. Hannah had thought of a football star and Bill was trying to find out who it was. He turned to his mother but she pointed out that she knew absolutely nothing about football. He would have to try to track the answer down himself (or track down the answer himself) and to watch out for any clues that Hannah might deliberately give. After ten minutes Bill still hadn’t latched on so he gave up and Hannah told him the answer: Ronaldo.

35.3 Suggested answers:
1 You might check up on a person, facts or something you’ve been told.
2 You might point out an important fact, a mistake or a connection between two things.
3 Someone might find out some information, a secret or someone’s date of birth.

Unit 36

36.1 c  2 d  3 a  4 e  5 b

36.2 It’s time you sorted yourself out. You’re 23 now and you still haven’t got a job!
You’ve got to face up to reality. It’s about time you realised that the secret of success lies in taking positive action. Over the next couple of days, I will expect you to come up with a few ideas about how you’re going to improve your situation, or else you can go and live somewhere else. Why don’t you go and see about that job Uncle Herbert offered you at his factory? I’ve offered to help talk things over with you, but you never seem to want my help. Yet you don’t deal with things yourself. Sometimes
I think you’re just a waste of space!

36.3 it’s just dawned on me: I’ve suddenly realised or understood something

43.4 Dick hardly swotted/mugged up at all for his exams. He brushed up on the history of the French Revolution, but no questions on the French Revolution came up in the exam. He was afraid that he would be thrown out of university for failing his exams. However, he did just manage to scrape through them and so he will be in college when we go back next term. He has promised to try to keep up with work next year as he is planning to sign up for a couple of quite difficult courses, including business studies. He’ll have to polish up* his French because the business studies course involves spending a term in France working in a business. He thinks he can just pick up the language when he gets there, but I think he should study it before he goes because he only has school French.
   * We can also say: He’ll have to polish his French up ...
    We can also say: He thinks he can just pick the language up when he gets there, ...
